

S1 Nolan L. Rothenbach

Location - East-CG: R6, C9

Nolan L. Rothenbach

Nolan L. Rothenbach, 68, a resident of the Wisconsin Veterans Home at King, passed away Friday in the Veterans Administration Hospital in Madison.

He was born Sept. 10, 1920, in Oshkosh, the son of the late George A. and Josephine Rothenbach. He came to the Wisconsin Veterans Home from Oshkosh in 1983. He served in the U.S. Coast Guard during World War II.

Surviving are a son, Michael Hall of Houston, Texas; two brothers, George J. of Appleton and Norbert (Beverly) of Oshkosh; and one sister, Elaine (Wallace) Salzman of Lake Havasu City, Ariz.

Seaman Nolan Rothenbach, of the coastguard, left Thursday to report in Cleveland, O., for assignment to duty, after spending a three-weeks furlough with his wife, Bette, 1820 Hubbard street. Seaman Rothenbach was previously stationed in New York.

