

Anzac Day

Anzac Day, I woke up at 9:00 AM and was excited for what a wonderful day it was going to be. We had it all planned Me, Mum and Dad would take the dog for a walk and then go to Port Waikato to have a swim.

Finally when we got around to taking the dog for a walk, we saw some people water skiing on ramps and they were doing cool backflips and grinding rails. Once this guy did a Triple - Backflip and I shouted "Whoa!". After Pearl our dog had Fun we set sail to Port Waikato.

On the way we saw a lot of ANZAC Parades about 10. Once we got to Port Waikato I almost immediately Climbed over the sand dunes and went for a swim in the Tasman Sea, Home of New Zealand and Australia. The waves were really big I saw one that was probably about 1.2 metres tall. Once I started swimming I got use to the disgusting taste of sea salt. After that we walked to the cafe not too far away. ANZAC DAY WAS A FUN DAY!
