

Here's the deal:

If you're a business coach looking to get more clients for your coaching offer...

But have been struggling getting your messaging across about the transformation that your clients can receive on the backend...

I can help you write a crystal clear sales letter.

Like one of my clients, Kay Somji:

Who has this to say when I wrote a sales letter and email promotion for his high-ticket offer:

"I worked with Destrie to install a 'freestyle sales system' into my business.

The experience was smooth, seamless, and a lot of fun.

We hopped on a Zoom, chatted casually about what I do, who I help, the business etc. and before I knew it... he had all he needed.

Within a few days my campaign was fully written for me, in my tone of voice, all I had to do was send it out to my subscribers and promote it on socials.

I ran it as a promo to my audience and we collected $46K cash the first week.

And I've since been using it to add an extra $15k per month to my business, while saving time on calls."

Thanks Des!"

When it comes to getting more sales for your coaching offer...

The devil is in the details.

And most people don't invest in a coaching program because they don't have a clear vision of what they are going to get AFTER going through your coaching program.

Either the transformation isn't crystal clear...

All the details aren't there for them to make an informed decision...

Or there is something in your messaging that is boring, confusing, or unclear...

I can take care of that FOR you and write a highly-converting sales letter written specifically for your coaching offer.

Here's what we'll do:

1. I'll send you a questionnaire to get to know your goals, market, offer, and brand
2. Once I get that back, I'll write a sales letter for your offer within 5 business days
3. We'll promote the sales letter to your email list and social audience

And if the sales letter doesn't convert at least your investment back in sales...

I'll refund back the deposit to create your sales letter.

If you're ready to get started...

Here's the investment:

You can get started today for a deposit of $750

And another payment of $750 thirty days later.

Or if you want to save $500

The pay in full investment is $1500.

Most of my clients make their investment back with just ONE sale of their high-ticket offer.

And if I don't help you at least close ONE sale of your offer to make your investment back...

I'll refund the deposit it took to create the sales letter AND you get to keep all the assets created.

If you're ready to get a crystal clear sales letter going for your coaching business...

Email me at destrie@freestylecopywriter.com with the Subject Line: Sales Letter

I'll ask a few questions about your offer and audience, we'll have a quick chat to see if I can help and take it from there.

Til next time...
