

Introduction

The simplest explanation of my Roleplay premise is that my character is an unlucky girl of mine called Yowai Ningen that hexed one of the weirdest but powerful curses to date that's based on the phrase, too much of a good thing. as this curse not only transports her to a world of one of her favorite animes and etc. But progressively transforms and warps the world and it's characters, especially those she finds attractive, both physically and mentally to tempt and seek her out to tease as well torment and bully her with the things and kinks she finds attractive. Causing varying levels of sexual frustration as well general discomfort and suffering that can range from mild annoyance to outright terror and erotic horror as she is terrorized by monsters born from her perversions and desires

Or maybe she befriends these twisted entities or make some form of truce...it's very possible among other things.

This roleplay primarily centered in the settings and worlds of both eastern and western animation and video games. and I want partners who can play the female characters of any of these series with actual detail and accuracy. Here's the list of series that will count as a bonus for me!:

Anime and Manga:

1. Chainsaw man
2. Demon slayer
3. Bleach
4. Mob psycho 100
5. One piece
6. Soul eater
7. Kill la kill
8. Jujutsu Kaisen
9. My hero academia
10. Nichijou

11. Azumanga
12. Watamote
13. Puella Madoka
14. Attack on Titan
15. Digimon

Video games

1. Almost any one of the Nintendo games except for like Animal crossing, fire emblem and star fox purely because I haven't played this yet
2. Indie games like Lisa and Undertale/Deltarune
3. The soulsborne ring games except for like demon souls
4. Sonic the hedgehog
5. Capcom games ranging from MegaMan to Ace attorney.
6. Skull girls
7. Persona
8. Pokemon

Western cartoons

1. Anyone of cartoon network's cartoons ranging from Ed, Eddie, Eddy to Steven Universe.
2. Anyone of the Nickelodeon cartoons rainbow from SpongeBob to Avatar, the last air bender.
3. Almost any one of the disney cartoons ranging from it's animated movies to things like owl house and proud family.
4. DreamWorks and Pixar movies

There are a lot more details and things but this is the geist of what I want right now.

So the three minimum requirements, which can be quite debatable, of what I want in my partners is:

Those who watch and actually know any of these shows

Those who actually share/completely on board with the kinks I just listed.

There are others I can think of. As I have watched and liked quite a lot of things in my years of life.

So the kinks I want in this roleplay at minimum is reality and mental alteration, growth that ranges from breast growth, foot growth, and muscle growth and even weight gain. Transformation and size differences. Musky body play and facesitting. And possibly: Farting.

There is a lot more details and things but this is the geist of what I want right now.
