

Module 3 Culturally Competent Evaluation

Use this worksheet to record notes and reflections on how the content of this module relates to YOUR organization.

This module should be completed after Module 2: Issues of Ethics in Evaluation.

Key terms:

Culture, equity, diversity.

Introduction

Notes:

By the end of this module, you will be able to...

- Become familiar with what culture and cultural competence is,
- Describe where cultural competence is found in evaluation,
- Learn the difference between diversity and equity, and
- Identify ethics in culturally responsive evaluations.

Module 3 Culturally Competent Evaluation

What is culture?

What is cultural competence?

Choose three steps of evaluation where cultural competence is found and give explicit examples in each case.

Which of the essential practices for cultural competence in evaluation can you apply to your organization?

Module 3 Culturally Competent Evaluation

What is the difference between diversity and equity?

How can evaluation contribute to equity and diversity in your organization?

With what have you learned and reflected in this module, how might you address cultural competency in your evaluation?
