And the birds were chirping. It was a nice day,, UNTIL. Captain cook showed up on the endeavor.
Yung nick spotted the land we headed over as quick as we could. Finally we got to land.

When we got there there were people and we didn't know the people lived here. Out of curiousness captain cook shot one instantly they retaliated by grabbing a crew member in a choke position with a knife by his throat ready To kill him. Captain cook was about to shoot him but he didn't. Then a crew member shot him and the bullet went right into his head and killed him.
