

The Orangered Hat Constitution

Article I — Code of Conduct

§1. All Orangereds are representative of themselves, their respective territories, the Orangered Kingdom, and the all-inclusive community of Reddit.

§2. All Orangereds shall conduct themselves in a professional manner and act with honor

§3. No Orangered shall ban another Orangered or Periwinkle from their territories unless a rule of Reddit or of this Constitution has been broken.

§4. Any Orangered that performs any verbal and/or cyber-attacks including but not limited to slanders against character, harassment, libel, name calling (for exceptions, see Section 7) witch hunts, and unfounded accusations against other brothers and in some cases other Chroma dwellers may be subjected but not limited to shunning, the stripping of positions, probations, and banning.

§5. While posting propaganda is encouraged, posts or comments containing actual hate speech or acts of violence against either side is discouraged and will result in a ban.

§6. This is a game, and any actions deemed as taking this game too seriously will result in ridicule and possibly community service if deemed annoying enough. If the person does not understand even after that, further measures will have to be taken.

§7. Exceptions to these rules include:

- Calling Periwinkles “Scum”, “Peri-Scum”, “Scummy Peris”, “Literally Tiercel”, “Commies”, “Damn Commies”, “Purple Rejects”, “Blue Rejects”, or words similar or said in the same taste.
- Accusations with Serious Evidence

§8. No Orangered may persecute, ban, or witch hunt another Orangered based on suspicion without sufficient evidence to back it up. The evidence must be enough to incriminate the individual in engaging in behavior not deeming fit of an Orangered. In such a case that this occurs they will be subjected but may be but not limited to shunning, the stripping of positions, probations, and banning.

Article II — Orangered Rules

§1. Civilian Territory

※1. All Orangereds, upon arrival, may choose one (1) territory to reside in. To do so, he or she must either PM the governor or lieutenant governor, modmail the territory subreddit, or, if applicable, respond to the citizenship application of the territory.

※2. One may change one's residential territory if he or she feel the need to do so, but the civilian must inform both his or her current home territory and the territory he or she wishes to move to.

§2. Military

※1. All Orangereds, upon arrival, may apply to enlist in only one (1) of the three (3) departments of the Orangered Military: the Snooland Army, the Novum Persarum Navy, and the Vermillion Union Air Force.

※2. All Orangereds can choose one Sub department as well, explained in Article V.

※3. One may change one's department if he or she feels the need to do so, but the militant must inform both his or her current department of military and the department he or she wishes to join.

Article III — Internal Affairs

§1. The High Council

※1. The High Council of Orangered would consist of the Governors and Generals of all Orangered Territories/Branches of Military, and would preside over all Orangered matters. Any internal issues will be brought before and dealt with by the Council. The Council is the group of governors of each Orangered Territory.

※2. The High Council will be the moderators of /r/Orangered.

§2. Governorship

※1. The hierarchy of leadership within each territory will be as follows: /u/reostra, /u/chromabot, appointed officials, and finally, any individuals who deserve a moderating position.

※2. The highest level of official in a territory is the Governor, or the Satrap/King/Mayor/etc., if the title of governor is not used. The governor has numerous responsibilities and is the authority within his or her own land in times of autonomy.

§3. Responsibilities of a Governor

※1. Each Orangered Governor has a set of responsibilities that he or she is expected to perform. These duties include up keeping and moderating of his or her territorial subreddit, providing a public list of citizens residing in their territory, providing a citizenship application form either via thread or modmail, handling inter-territorial diplomacy, providing for the culture, lore, and history of their territory, and serving as a representative on the High Council of Orangered.

※2. The Governor is allowed to pick a Lieutenant Governor from the citizens of their territory. If the Governor wishes to they may give the choice of choosing the Lt. Gov. to the High Council. If no Lieutenant Governor is chosen, the Council will appoint one.

※3. The Governor of each territory is responsible for territorial upgrades. Each territory should have a flag, a motto, a basic description of the territory, some history, an official citizenship application, a citizens list, a Chroma map. Extra features include but are not limited to a crest, and a territorial map. If the territory doesn't have any of the basic and important features, the Governor holds the responsibility to add it.

§4. Powers Restricted from Governors

※1. Orangered Governors are the ultimate authority within their territory, but they do not have free reign. As with any position of responsibility, there are limits to the power the Governor wields.

※2. A Governor may not ban any user, Periwinkle or Orangered, without reason. If a user is banned, he or she has the right to appeal the ban to the High Council of Orangered.

※3. In the event of a Governor repeatedly failing in his or her duty, they will be asked to step down from the position. If the Governor refuses to step down and relinquish power, /u/Reostra will step in and remove the rogue Governor.

§5. Appointment of Officials

※1. When the time comes for a territory to have a new official, a post will be made on /r/Orangered notifying the vacancy of a position. Those who are interested to fill the spot will send a message to the High Council via moderator mail on /r/Orangered to be formally submitted as an applicant.

※2. The High Council holds all power in choosing the official among the candidates based on their activity on Chroma, maturity, and trustworthiness. Once this decision has been made, it is final. Any candidates that were not chosen may not harass or otherwise bother the chosen candidate, if they do so they will face punishment from the High Council.

§6. Governor Order of Precedence

※1. In the event that a Governor resigns from his or her position, the Lt. Governor will assume the position of Governor until such time as a new governor is chosen.

※2. The new Governor will be chosen by the High Council using the process outlined in Article III, Section 5.

※3. However, if the High Council chooses to suspend the action outlined in Article III, Section 6, Clause 2, then the High Council will reign supreme until such time as a new Governor may be chosen.

§7. Territory Turnover

※1. If a territory is captured, and then recaptured, the original Governor and Lieutenant Governor are not automatically reinstated. They may apply for their old positions again but are not guaranteed to be elected and will follow the same procedure outlined in Article III, Section 5. During the intervening time, the Governor will retain his or her seat on the High Council, but will be required to relinquish the council seat if a different Governor is chosen.

※2. In the event of a new territory being captured, no current Governor may apply for the position of Governor of the new territory, even if he or she has the intent of stepping down from their current position to fill the new one. Lieutenant Governors may, however, step down from their positions and apply for the position of Governor, provided that they comply with all rules and regulations set down in this document, including but not limited to their residence in the territory they wish to govern, and the submission of an application to the High Council for evaluation.

§8. Territorial Constitutions

Governors and acting governors of all Orangered territories may add to, amend, and edit the constitution of their territory, but they do not hold the right to completely alter the original territorial constitution or to remove the original articles contained therein.

§9. Territorial Rights

This amendment is confirming the rights of the territories, and disallowing the formation of alliances between territories other than that of the allegiance sworn to the Orangered Nation. Territories may still work together to mutual benefit, but cannot be considered beneath, lesser than, or subservient to another territory within the Orangered Nation. The specific laws enacted by this proposal are:*

All Orangered territories are independent from all other Orangered territories and are guaranteed the right to have their own territorial government and rights granted to a territory by the Orangered constitution.*

All Orangered territories are direct vassals of the Orangered nation and their governments shall directly interface with the High Council of the Orangered nation. No intermediary organization may represent one or more Orangered territory.

An Orangered territory shall not behave as, or become a subsidiary part of another Orangered territory; although they may exchange goods and services for mutual benefit within the common laws of the Orangered constitution.

Article IV — Foreign Affairs

§1. There is no cogent justification for breaking the reddiquette.

§2. The Council of Karma is a place people can make suggestions for the community or comment on existing threads relating to Chroma affairs. It is not a place for the settling of arguments and bantering of useless circlejerks.

§3. The time and place of an offense of these rules in will dictate the ruling as far as punishment. For instance, abusing these rules in /r/chromarelaxation will bring about much harsher punishment than in /r/chromacirclejerk.

§4. An Orangered in a Periwinkle territory must follow the laws set forth by the respective territory. Likewise, a Periwinkle in an Orangered territory must follow laws set forth by the Orangered territory.

§5. Generals must consult with each other and the High Council prior to invading a territory. Failure to do so will result in the risk of consequences including but not limited to apologizing publicly and stripping of the individual's General rank.

※1. In the event that any of the Generals are absent for an extended period of time, the High Council is required to appoint a General pro tempore to take his or her place during the absence.

※2. Should the General leave unannounced for more than 4 days, the High Council will decide upon the Pro tempore.

Article V — Departments and Sub departments

§1. Each Orangered has the right to join one (1) military department and one (1) sub department

§2. Departments of Orangered are: the Snooland Army, the Novum Persarum Navy, and the Vermillion Union Air Force. Generals of /r/Orangered are the leaders of these departments

§3. Sub departments of Orangered are: the Tentorahogo Marines, the Aegis Mages, and the White Blades Counter-Intelligence.

§4. If a territory of a department or sub department gets captured by the enemy, the department may be relocated to another territory; however, a territory can only host one department and 1 sub department at a time.

Article VI — Hats and Flairs

§1. Hats are the right of all Orangereds but the flair accompanied by them are privileges. The High Council reserves the right to change it at any time, but if one proves oneself worthy, he or she may request flair of his or her choice.

§2. Some hats such as the hat given to the winner of the Festum Persae are reserved for the winner. If an individual wearing a special hat is seen their hat will be changed to the standard no hat.

§3. Hats given to Periwinkles are privileges. The High Council reserves the right to change the hat and the flair of any Periwinkle at any time, given that the flair doesn't violate any rules set in this document.

§4. If people wish they may make their own hats and use them as their flair. These hats are “owned” by the person for as long as they wish. They hold complete rights over these hats and may use them as they please. With their permission their hats can be used by others.

Article VII — Chroma Market and Taxes

Taxes given by the Chroma Market are not applicable in the Orangered Nation. After the tax demonstrations in the Peripirate Mutiny and the court case Hanson _Alister v.

Dalek1234 and the Market, the Orangered people are relieved of the act of taxation.

Article VIII — Authority of the Constitution

§1. The Legitimacy of the Orangered Hat Constitution

※1. Any replication of this document not with the original stated rules will be given a warning. A dual offense will result in a ban from /r/Orangered for a set period of time. The High Council will decide the time.

※2. Any productions of false or rather opposing documents to this one will result in the creator being banned for a set period of time and ranks stripped. A dual offense will result in banishment from Orangered for a lengthy period of time.

※3. An amendment to the constitution may be proposed at any given time but must be approved by over ten active Orangereds, three of which are on either the council of karma's mod board or the Orangered sub's modboard. The article should be proposed on /r/orangered.

§2. Territorial Constitutions

※1. All territorial constituencies will be required to follow all of the rules stated in the Orangered Hat Constitution. They are allowed to impose their own set of rules and punishment; however, none may interfere with the High Council's decision.

※2. Territorial constitutions must be available for viewing in Article X to be a viable constitution.

※3. All territorial constitution laws defer to the Orangered Hat Constitution. The Orangered Constitution overrules ALL territorial Constitution's.

Article IX: The Orangered Education System

※1. Every Orangered who joins up is required to read up on the wiki, sidebar and other easily seen information on the Orangered sub.

※2. Specialization in a certain aspect of Chroman life is recommended by the Orangered Government to be taken by all citizens. Citizens are recommended to specialize in one of the following aspects of Chroman Life, War, Diplomacy, Lore/History ... Orangered who aspire to serve their countries in positions such as the Council of Karma, General of Orangered Armies, Loremaster's and should take projects to show that they are responsible. Projects like leading a skirmish in a battle if aspiring for a General position, organizing the Olympics if aspiring to one day join the Council of Karma, and writing

Lore on specific Chroman events if aspiring for a Loremaster position.

Article X — Territory Constitutions.

§1. Articles of Aegis Authority

※1. No person, be they Periwinkle (PW) or Orangered (OR) may publicly denounce any member PW or OR. Such offense will be dealt with by the leaders of Orangered at their leisure. The only exception to this rule is during times of open conflict. When in open conflict no member of the PW clan is safe from harassment. ('Open Conflict' is classified as beginning when registration for war begins until the final bells of war have ended their song.)

※2. PW propaganda will not be tolerated in Orangered Territories and will promptly be torn down and spat upon, (s) he who posted said propaganda. Pro-OR propaganda will always be welcome but anti-PW propaganda may only be shown in times of open conflict. (See #1 for explanation of 'Open Conflict'.)

※3. In times of war, the Territories of Orangered will open her arms to all OR refugees providing food, shelter, and family. PW refugees will only be accepted upon defection from PW.

※4. No PW may reside in Aegis, be they king or peasant, PW may defect and after an undisclosed probationary period they will be offered OR citizenship and official residence in Aegis.

※5. Members of the CFTM Guild of Chroma may visit the territory of Aegis provided they have the right documentation and have a valid reason for not waiting for the next Guild meeting.

※6. Until the Orangered flag falls from Aegis skies will all citizens of Aegis love their country and obey her laws.

§2. New Persian Constitution of Laws for Freedom

※1. An illegal raid of New Persia will result in a permanent ban.

※2. Discrimination, from either Orangered or Periwinkle to its opposing team members, is not allowed. Failure to follow this law will result in a warning, and will have the felon's username taken note of, before being banned after having broken this same law for a second time. However, this law is omitted during the course of a legal battle in New Persia, or other events which brings the two teams in combat or competition against each other.

※3. Periwinkles are welcome, but only as tourists. As long as New Persia stays an Orangered territory, no Periwinkle will be accepted as a citizen of New Persia.

※4. Posts may only be used to share love. Any post that shows Periwinkle pride will be removed. As a Periwinkle, remember that New Persia is currently not part of Periwinkle territory, and that all Periwinkles are accepted as no more than tourists. Failure to follow this law will result in a warning, and will have the felon's username taken note of, before being banned after having broken this same law for a second time.

※5. All Orangered laws are applicable as long as New Persia is part of the Orangered Kingdom.

§3: /r/Snooland Bill of Rights.

I: The four /r/Snooland rules created by /u/Graphic_Arteeest and /u/GhostofPacman are the primary rules of the land. The General/Governor has the right to swiftly act enforcing these rules and will not have these rights taken away by the council.

A: Follow the Rules of War set by the Council of Karma, and the Orangered Hats Constitution.

B: Any talk of/or mentioning rebelling or starting a revolution will result in an automatic ban.

C: Any talk of treason will result in an automatic ban.

D: Any acts of insubordination will result in a penalty.

II: Citizens of Snooland get 300 CRM and 30 steel per week from The Snooland Steel Company and all militia members get 7 steel per week.

III: The militia will be required to sign up again every 2 months; rank may change at these sign ups. Once you sign up, you cannot join another Orangered department until after your 2 months are served. Also, you will be receiving messages from the /u/ORB

IV: Any Snooland Citizen who has the rank of 1st Lieutenant or Higher may be a moderator of /r/Snooland. A non-citizen's militia rank of Brigadier General (*2) or higher will also be given a moderator status. Periwinkles are not allowed to be Snooland citizens or join the militia.

V: If any user, Periwinkle or Orangered decides to directly verbally attack any citizen of Snooland, or militia member, in /r/Snooland, or /r/Orangered, the Governor/General has every right to banish that user from /r/Snooland. Any Orangered verbally attacking a Snooland citizen/militia member in /r/Periwinkle will also get banished. The High Council cannot take away this right and banned users may repeal their banishment to /u/greyavenger, and the Western Union.

A: Note that trash talking before, during or after battle in a /u/chromabot official battle thread does not count towards breaking rule V. Rather, the direct attack of any Snoolanders character, personality, and/or yelling profanities at any citizen outside of battle will be violating rule V

VII: The official /r/Snooland national anthem is Line of Fire by Junip

VIII: If any militia member decides to leave the militia before the 2 months' time is served, then he or she may risk the removal of rank, of allowance, removal of current or future citizenship possibilities, and in extreme cases, banishment from Snooland. Any Snooland citizen not in the militia however, can leave Snooland at any time and will always be welcomed back.

IX: Any Snooland residences and militia members MUST fight for /r/Snooland if the enemy marches within these great lands. Militia members must message the mods with their total troop numbers before and after any battle that they participate in.

X: All citizens of Snooland will receive their 200 CRM and 40 steel per week based on their activeness in /r/Snooland.

A: Your activeness will be determined through a monthly census. You must comment in each census and have participated in some way in Snooland during the past month in order to remain an active citizen.

B: Every citizen who fails to complete article A and wants another chance will have to reapply for allowance through the Western Union. If a citizen is inactive more than once, allowance will be reinstated at the next survey.

§4: Tentorahogo Treaty of Liberties

I: There will be no slandering or mistreating of any citizen or visitor to Tentorahogo. Any failure to abide by this rule will result in warning, brief penalization, and if this is a continuing issue, banishment.

II: There will be no rage posts, hate speeches against anyone or any faction. Ever. Doing so will result in taking away of posting privileges. The duration of this will be dependent on the severity of the crime.

III: It is heavily recommended that all Citizens actively participate in the Territory. This includes but is not limited to:

A: Orangered Propaganda

B: Music/songs

C: Artwork

D: Lore (Approved by the Governor)

Below is a list of things that will not be posted under any circumstance:

A: Hate and rage speeches/comics

B: Unapproved Lore

C: Tentorahogian Maps, Logo's. Or Flags not approved by the Governor

IV: All citizens have a say in government, if a Governor or Lt. Governor is inactive for three weeks without an excuse elections may be held to elect a temporary replacement. If the missing governmental official does not make an appearance for another three week straight, he/she shall be removed as Gov. /Lt. Gov. and the elected replacement shall take his/her place.

V: No Periwinkle may be a Citizen on Tentorahogo. They are welcome as tourists, but so long as it is an Orangered territory no Periwinkle may reside there.

§5: The Constitution of Oraistedearg
