Causes and Effects in English

Vocabulary and Grammar

When we talk about a situation that makes another situation happen, we talk about cause and effect.

In English, we use certain expressions such as because, due to, since (homonyme du "since" vu avec le Present Perfect), and as to talk about causes and effects.

Cause

A cause (noun) is a person or thing that makes something happen.

• The cause of the accident was a flat tire (= pneu crevé).

A cause (verb) is an action that makes something happen

• The flat tire caused the car to wreck.

Effect

An effect (noun) is a change that is a result of an action or cause

• The snowstorm had an effect on his mood (= humeur).

Affect

When effect is used as a verb, it is usually spelled with an  $\mathbf{a} = \text{affect}$ .

To affect (verb) is to produce an effect; to cause a change in something.

• The snowstorm affected his mood.
