

Hey, all!

Due to recent changes, Patreon no longer allows patrons to list giveaways as a rewards tier. However, I still want to be able to give things away to all of you lovely people! In order to work with this change, certain tiers will now add you to a monthly email list. This monthly email will include:

- A message from me to all of you
- Access to two separate giveaways
 - One giveaway will be a book reward! One winner will be chosen and that winner will be allowed to select a book of their choice from the photo I send them (ARCs, hardcovers, and paperbacks all available). This giveaway is accessible to patrons outside the U.S., if an international patron wins then they will instead receive a credit for a book on Book Depository
 - One giveaway will be a book merch reward. One winner will be chosen and that winner will receive a small box of 4-5 bookish goodies. This giveaway will not be available to patrons outside the U.S., sorry about that!
