

Teacher Name: Mr. Zachary Booth
Teacher Email: zbooth@usd116.org

Introduction to Teacher's E-Learning Plan: 8th Grade - Career Connections

Weekly Lesson Overview:

Week	Learning Targets/Description
March 30-April 3	Students will research jobs, careers, and occupations of interest. As well as research information about updates on coronavirus activity and resources necessary for family health and wellness.
April 6-April 9 *No School April 10	Students will look at job applications. Look for different mock or real job applications and fill them out. Links and other media sources will be attached to the google classroom which students have access to.
April 13-April 17	Students will have the opportunity to start on their resumes. Students research the importance of a resume, create a resume, and will use this resume for future endeavors.

Week	Learning Targets/Description
April 20th - April 24th	Students will have the opportunity to review information about time management and study skills. Attached to the Google classroom you will find a PowerPoint on the information for students to review. Students will then have the opportunity to participate in a discussion board and Zoom Virtual Classroom experience. Zoom information will be attached to the Google Classroom and to the E-Learning Doc.
April 27th - May 1st	Students will be watching a Ted Talk on expectations and then will answer questions through a discussion board platform. Access to the information will be within the google classroom. If your students have not joined the google classroom I encourage you to email me or have your student check their email for an invite to the classroom from me.
May 4th - May 8th	Students will be learning about the basics of banking. Information on activities, content, and zoom meeting information will be within the google classroom.

Week	Learning Targets/Description
------	------------------------------

May 11th - May 15th	Students will be learning about the basics of credit. Information on activities, content, and zoom meeting information will be within the google classroom.
May 18th - May 22nd	Zoom class meetings will still accessible on Wednesdays at 12
May 25th - May 29th (Last Week of School)

Online Learning Tools/Resources (Include Login Information needed):

<https://classroom.google.com/c/NTU1NTIzMzUzNTIa>

Students have been invited to the classroom. Another way to access the classroom is through this link where you will find resources and other learning materials for students and families to have access to. The classroom code is at the top of the screen on the left under the title of the classroom.

Teacher Name: Mr. Zachary Booth

Teacher Email: zbooth@usd116.org

Introduction to Teacher's E-Learning Plan: 7th Grade - Life Skills

Weekly Lesson Overview:

Week	Learning Targets/Description
March 30-April 3	Students will research necessary life skills for living within a pandemic. Students will make a list of resources necessary to live safely within a pandemic.
April 6-April 9 *No School April 10	Students will have an opportunity to create a budget. There will be a powerpoint slide of the instructions on what to do for the budget. Students are encouraged to work with their families.
April 13-April 17	Students will create a hygiene display for family members to follow and keep track of during the pandemic. Students are encouraged to work with their families.

7th Grade Life Skills Class Continues Below...

Week	Learning Targets/Description
April 20th - April 24th	Students will have the opportunity to review information about time management and study skills. Attached to the Google classroom you will find a PowerPoint on the information for students to review. Students will then have the opportunity to participate in a discussion board and Zoom Virtual Classroom experience. Zoom information will be attached to the Google Classroom and to the E-Learning Doc.
April 27th - May 1st	Students will be watching a Ted Talk on expectations and then will answer questions through a discussion board platform. Access to the information will be within the google classroom. If your students have not joined the google classroom I encourage you to email me or have your student check their email for an invite to the classroom from me.
May 4th - May 8th	Students will learn about stress management and other coping skills. Information on activities, content, and zoom meeting information will be within the google classroom.

Week	Learning Targets/Description
May 11th - May 15th	Students will write letters to their future selves going into their high school career. Details of the assignment will be attached to the google classroom.
May 18th - May 22nd
May 25th - May 29th (Last Week of School)

Online Learning Tools/Resources (Include Login Information needed):

<https://classroom.google.com/c/NTU1NTM3NDI4MDZa>

Students have been invited to the classroom. Another way to access the classroom is through this link where you will find resources and other learning materials for students and families to have access to. The classroom code is at the top of the screen on the left under the title of the classroom.

Teacher Name: Mr. Zachary Booth

Teacher Email: zbooth@usd116.org

Introduction to Teacher’s E-Learning Plan: 6th Grade - Introduction to Family and Consumer Sciences

Weekly Lesson Overview:

Week	Learning Targets/Description
March 30-April 3	Students will work on activities to express who they are. Students will set goals for accomplishing different tasks.
April 6-April 9 *No School April 10	Students will create a hygiene display for family members to follow and keep track of during the pandemic. Students are encouraged to work with their families.
April 13-April 17	Students will be creating vision boards. The details of the project are within the google classroom.

Week	Learning Targets/Description
April 20th - April 24th	Students are tasked to make healthy snacks of their own creation for the family during lunch time. Each day students make a lunch for the family, students will then upload a picture of the lunch they created for the family to enjoy. More details are within the google classroom.
April 27th - May 1st	Students will be watching a Ted Talk on expectations and then will answer questions through a discussion board platform. Access to the information will be within the google classroom. If your students have not joined the google classroom I encourage you to email me or have your student check their email for an invite to the classroom from me.

May 4th - May 8th	Students will compile a grocery list of essential needs and wants for their homes. Information on activities, content, and zoom meeting information will be within the google classroom.
-------------------	--

Week	Learning Targets/Description
May 11th - May 15th
May 18th - May 22nd
May 25th - May 29th (Last Week of School)

Online Learning Tools/Resources (Include Login Information needed):

<https://classroom.google.com/c/NTU1NTM3NDUzMTNa>

Students have been invited to the classroom. Another way to access the classroom is through this link where you will find resources and other learning materials for students and families to have access to. The classroom code is at the top of the screen on the left under the title of the classroom.