GRTA Wiki: https://wiki.diglib.org/Transparency-Accountability

Past DLF Working Lunches
- 2018 Agenda
- 2018 Annual Roundup
- 2017 Agenda

Seek ideas from people about what would be most useful and where people could focus their energy if they want to join

Present some concrete projects with an outcome to have people work on/discuss and set agenda for the next year

-----Roundup notes pulled from the wiki-----

Open Letters
As of June 27th, 2019, the group is considering commenting on proposed ICE record retention regulations. The conference call (details above) scheduled for July 2nd will approach this endeavor. Comments are due on August 5th, 2019.

In November 2018, members of the Advocacy Committee sent a letter to the National Archives with thoughts about how to improve the level of transparency of the processes surrounding records retention change requests. (See also the blog post about this letter, and the process that led up to it.)

Webinars
16 May 2019 - Jeanine Finn, Data and Digital Scholarship Librarian at Claremont Colleges presented Getting Access to Data in Open Records: Introduction to FOIA, State Laws, How to Get Started, & Why. The slides are available here and detailed minutes are available here

17 April 2019 - Meg Phillips, External Affairs Liaison for the National Archives, presented on "National Archives Records: NARA Laws, Access, and Public Involvement in Decisions." You can watch her webinar on YouTube.

1 March 2019 - Endangered Data Week Webinar featuring presentations from Manan Ahmed of Torn Apart/Separados, the Stacy Wood, author of The Paradox of Police Data and Gabriel Solis, author of Documenting State Violence: (Symbolic) Annihilation & Archives of Survival View the recording here.

18 January 2019 - Laura Sare of Texas A&M University presented on HathiTrust's Copyright Review of US State and Local Government Documents and The Technical Report Archive & Image Library (TRAIL). You can listen to her webinar on YouTube. (annotated agenda)

Others

Participated in PEGI National Forum in DC

Joseph's work on a federal register bot

There will be news about EDW by the time Forum Starts

How to get involved
Point to listserv
Attend our next meeting at xxxx time
Watch the wiki for future stuff