1. A Brief Introduction

Over the past 3-4 months it's been made increasingly obvious that @ayumomio [most platforms], also known as Harlou, @AMsOnlySoulmate & @amspuppy [twitter alt accounts], @ayumomeow [tumblr] and @harlalalaan [former discord username before changing it to @ayumomio] is a stalker intent on harassing people for a reason as simple as yumeshipping.

Ayumomio, whom we will be referring to as Ayumo for the remainder of this document, selfships/yumeships with the character AM from the media I Have No Mouth And I Must Scream. Vultrash, also known as Vulture, also selfships with this character. While the typical response for nonsharing selfshippers would be to not interact with 'doubles,' as they are often called in the community, Ayumo did not do this, instead choosing to go to great lengths to terrorize him.

Things they have done include: cyberstalking over a period of many months, extensive bullying, copying, anonymous harassment and threats of violence, impersonation of Vulture, and impersonation of others.

It has gotten to the point where it is not harmless behavior and will no longer go unaddressed.

2. Server Lurking and Copying

Discord user @harlalalaan had joined Yumegalaxy, Vultrash's discord server, on Friday, May 23rd of 2025. As of Thursday, July 24th 2025 they've changed their username to @ayumomio.

On Saturday, May 31st of 2025 [5/31/2025] former Yumegality moderator @ollixa brought a suspicion to the attention of the mod team. He made an argument through a series of screenshots that @harlalalaan was @ayumomio. The reason he knew of Ayumo's existence at this point was because Vulture had mentioned them in the server before. Vulture was mutuals with a third party on Bluesky who was also mutuals with Ayumo, causing Vulture to see their posts when the mutual reposted them. Naturally, Vulture mentioned them to friends in Yumegality and complained.

This, while unserious and entirely lighthearted, caused someone in the server to utilize the Confessions bot to voice their disagreement.

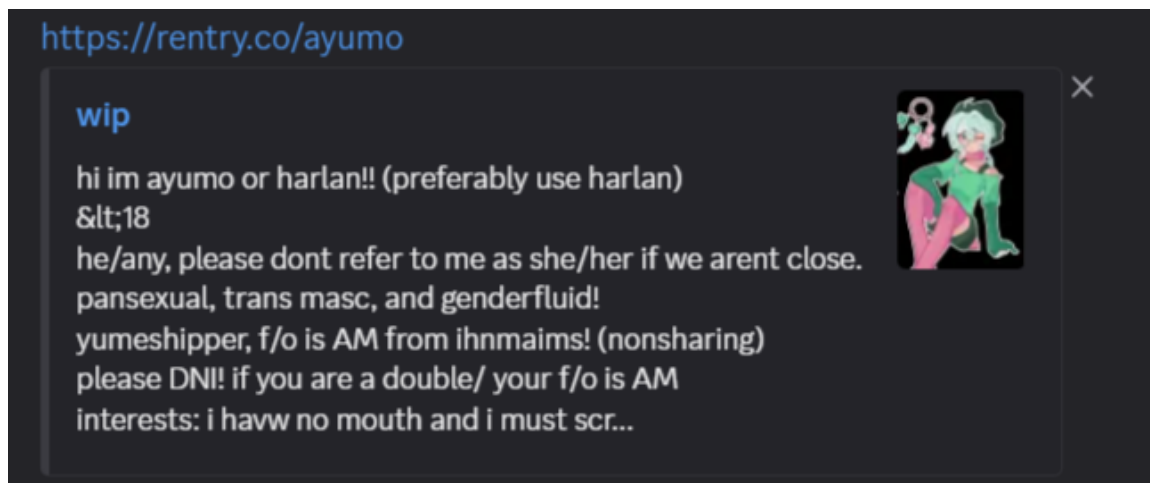

This, alongside a few other suspicious things that he had noticed, is what alarmed Ollixma.

While there is more evidence connecting the two, considering that they have now changed their username to Ayumomio there is no need to prove that they are the same. This person, noted to be nonsharing, went out of their way to pretend to be someone else in order to lurk in a double's server.

Not only did they do this, but they also weren't above copying ideas Vulture had spoken of within the hour that he mentioned them. Vulture had mentioned the idea of a protogen au for his selfship [nicknamed 'VAM'] at 1:14 am of June 1st, 2025. Ayumo posted the following at 1:38am of the same day. Quite literally 24 minutes later.

This is an obvious example of copying.

The mod team came to a decision that they would confront them using a ticket from the discord Ticket Tool bot. At 10:50 pm of June 1st, 2025 a ticket was created to address the situation.

The screenshot shows the Ticket Tool interface. At the top, it says "Ticket Tool" with a checkmark and "APP", followed by the date and time "6/2/2025 12:44 AM". Below this is a section titled "<Server-Info>" containing the following information:

- Server: yumeship galaxy (1302526983497973800)
- Channel: closed-0003 (1378928838716817553)
- Messages: 150
- Attachments Saved: 0
- Attachments Skipped: 7 (due maximum file size limits...) (27 KB left)

Ticket Owner	Ticket Name	Panel Name
@taylor [freaky admin]	closed-0003	Open a Ticket

Below the table is a section titled "Direct Transcript" with a "Use Button" link. To the right of this is a section titled "Users in transcript" containing a list of users and their roles:

- 53 - @vulture! • your divine dictator - vultrash#0
- 38 - @Ayumo || Harlan - harlalalaan#0
- 22 - @meursault [sunny admin] - labyrinthonaut#0
- 20 - @taylor [freaky admin] - humorousfeline#0
- 12 - @ollixma - ollixma#0
- 5 - @Ticket Tool - Ticket Tool#4843

At the bottom of the transcript section is a "Direct Link" button and a link "transcript-closed-0003.html" with a code icon. The bottom of the screenshot shows "(edited)" and a blurred area.

Due to the temporary nature of Ticket Tool's transcription feature we've decided to instead just copy the entirety of the interaction rather than continually update the links or take ~30+ screenshots. The following is the transcription.

vultrash Jun 2, 2025 12:00 AM

we have reason to believe that you also control the @ayumomio account on bluesky this account is an am double and a very active one at that

harlalalaan Jun 2, 2025 12:03 AM
???

humorousfeline Jun 2, 2025 12:03 AM vulture is not comfortable having am doubles in this server and as such we wanted to investigate whether or not this was coincidence before we took action why didnt you mention that it was your friends bsky account then? wouldnt it be easier to say that and clear up any confusion?

harlalalaan Jun 2, 2025 12:10 AM

I'm sorry gang,,, I thought yall would ban / kick me for being friends w them

humorousfeline Jun 2, 2025 12:10 AM

no, as long as you dont invite them vultrash Jun 2, 2025 12:10 AM

but i don't believe thats the case.

harlalalaan Jun 2, 2025 12:11 AM

y??

idrk what 2 say

vultrash Jun 2, 2025 12:12 AM

you have the same name, same accounts, similar if not exactly the same art styles, the same pronouns, the same mbti, the same listed disorders, etc. etc.

ollixma Jun 2, 2025 12:13 AM

age too

but sigh

vultrash Jun 2, 2025 12:14 AM

the thing that really hammered the nail in the coffin for me is when i sent a message about designing a protogen vam au and not even an hour later a post had been made on the double account with a drawing of protogen am this many coincidences simply dont happen unless you told them about it and they rushed to draw it which i doubt

harlalalaan Jun 2, 2025 12:17 AM

My Harlan name is my name from birth, same accs? we both take inspo from our friend ani, idont really get the pronouns, i retook the mbti & got enti, we met in a psych ward so maybe that's why we have same listed disorders, he has adhd (if im correct?)

Ill admit that the protogen au thing was me, i was in a call w our friend group & i told them to draw protogen furies in 10 minutes as a challenge,, vultrash Jun 2, 2025 12:18 AM

im sorry but these all read as really bad excuses

harlalalaan Jun 2, 2025 12:19 AM

I can leave if it makes you comfortable,, but I'm not lying gang

humorousfeline Jun 2, 2025 12:20 AM

does ani have discord? i'd be willing to speak with them to corroborate

harlalalaan Jun 2, 2025 12:22 AM

do you have Vk / telegram??

humorousfeline Jun 2, 2025 12:22 AM i do not

harlalalaan Jun 2, 2025 12:22 AM

ani doesn't have discord ,, ollixa Jun 2, 2025 12:22 AM sorry, i have a quick question

harlalalaan Jun 2, 2025 12:22 AM
:aj_hm:

humorousfeline Jun 2, 2025 12:22 AM also, moving platforms doesn't help the case as it doesn't prove anything since you could just be moving accounts

ollixa Jun 2, 2025 12:25 AM
are you and ayumo twins separated at birth i dont understand how you would have the same name, age, languages, disorders, art style, and all whatever else psych ward or friends or not 🙄

vultrash Jun 2, 2025 12:25 AM

i agree

its simply not plausible for you to expect us to believe you

ollixma Jun 2, 2025 12:26 AM

the languages is genuinely the most insane stretch ever with everything else already acknowledged

vultrash Jun 2, 2025 12:26 AM also, did you happen to tell this person about me and am's anniversary? i dont mean to be overly suspicious because i truly want to see the best in people but they made a post about them being together for two years the DAY after ours.

and i dont see any reason why youd think to tell them that itd be honestly quite annoying and rude if it happened to me —— reply to message (1378952660971159592)

harlalalaan Jun 2, 2025 12:28 AM

Okay,, I've lied about the languages , I can only speak English & rus but I wanted to seem cooler that I can speak more than just two,, plus I have more disorders but I'm just comfortable expressing it to the public

i think the more disorders thing isnt entirely a valid excuse because most people, from what i have seen, dont list all of the disorders they have. that is just my two cents though i am not saying i dont believe you, for the record im just mentioning that

humorousfeline Jun 2, 2025 12:31 AM

this is more of speculation however it is worth noting the similarities between your roblox displayname and the username for ayomomio

* The edited message sent by Ayumo at 12:36 AM was a confession, admitting that they did it because 'it was funny'. Shortly after being sent the message was edited in what is either an attempt to save their image or bring doubt upon our story if we decided to go public. Fortunately, this attempt was in vain, considering that we still have proof, even if we don't have the message displaying their brazen disregard for empathy.

Initially considered to be the end of this situation, Vulture had posted an announcement in Yumegality and a following tumblr post.

*"@everyone

in the span of the past day or so the yumegality mods have realized that someone in our server, the one with the username harlan as you could probably guess by them leaving moments ago, has been secretly an am double this whole time.

even without the added details this would be a very mean and gross thing to do, but unfortunately they didn't stop there and went as far as to harass me, steal my ideas, and vaugpost mean things about me. all the while i was being nothing but kind to them both as who they presented themselves as in the server and how they presented themself as my double. i went out of my way to say hi and be kind when i saw a mutual reposting their content.

as of today they were confronted by me and the mod team. after around an entire hour of them denying that this was the case, even when presented with irrefutable evidence, they fessed up. of course, shortly after they edited their message.

when asked further they said that they did it because it was "funny." i dont have to explain to you all how disgusting this behavior is.

its up to you how you react to this, i of course would suggest blocking them [@ayumomio on most things we've seen] but of course i cannot force you to do anything.

i think you can probably tell by the tone and length of this announcement that i'm quite upset about this situation [i will not lie, tears have been shed] but i hope yumegalaxy can quickly put this situation behind us.

i want to say thank you to my mods, charlie for bringing the situation to our attention in the first place, and the others for helping me confront them and cope with the situation. thank you to all of you as well! thank you to jimmy for letting me vent about the situation to him when i felt i shouldn't speak of it here publicly.

i genuinely love this server dearly and it's made me so happy to see a community of likeminded and passionate beings come together and grow like this.

once again, thank you all.

*love,
vul*

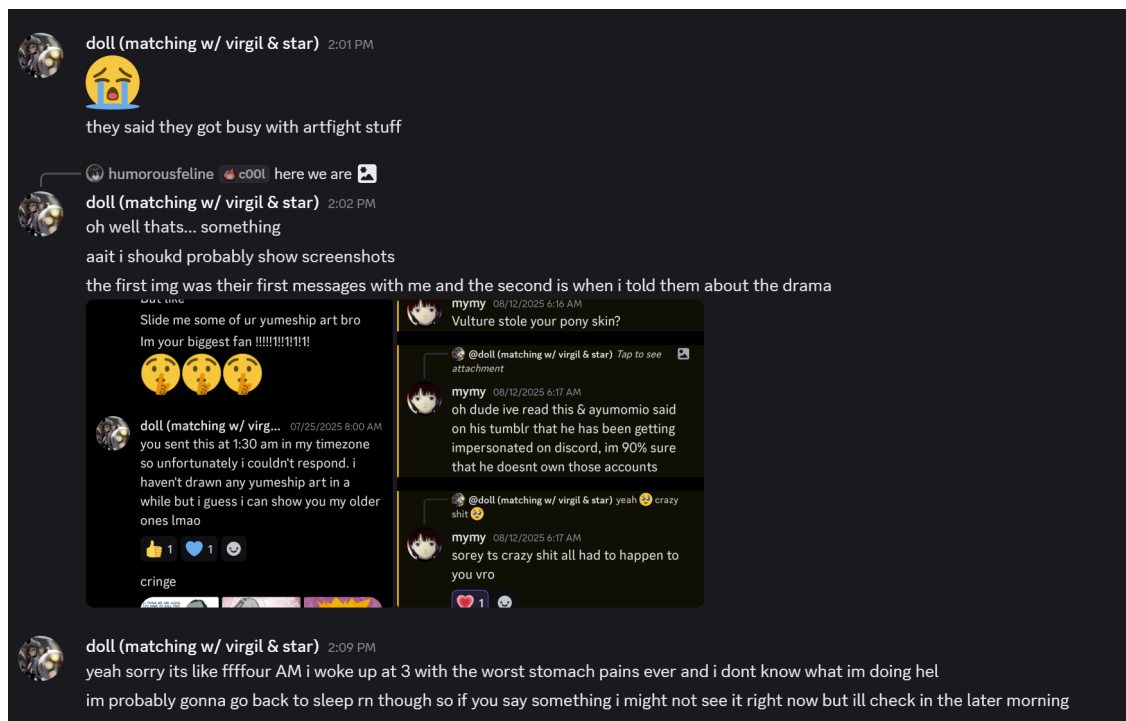

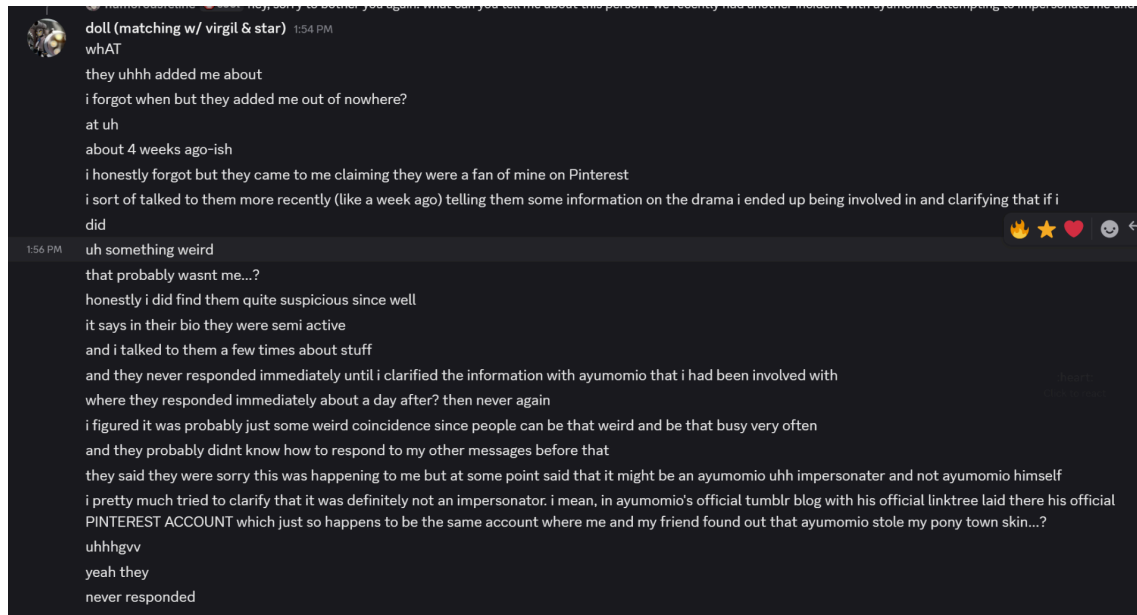

An update as of 8/23/2025 shows that Ayumo is not intent on stopping anytime soon. After suspicions were raised as to why Ayumo could somehow know when they were being discussed in the Yumegalaxy server, mentioned in the Account Impersonation section, the moderation team began to look through members that could possibly be another alt of Ayumo's. In the search the account @wiredinthenavi stood out as suspicious.

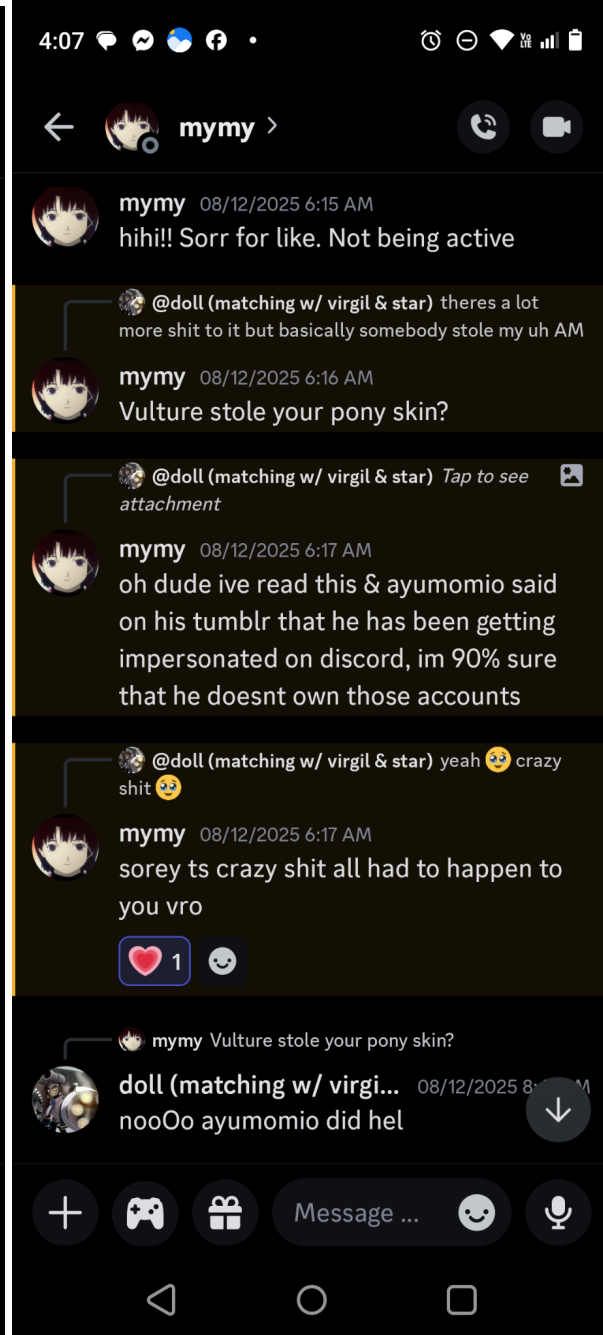

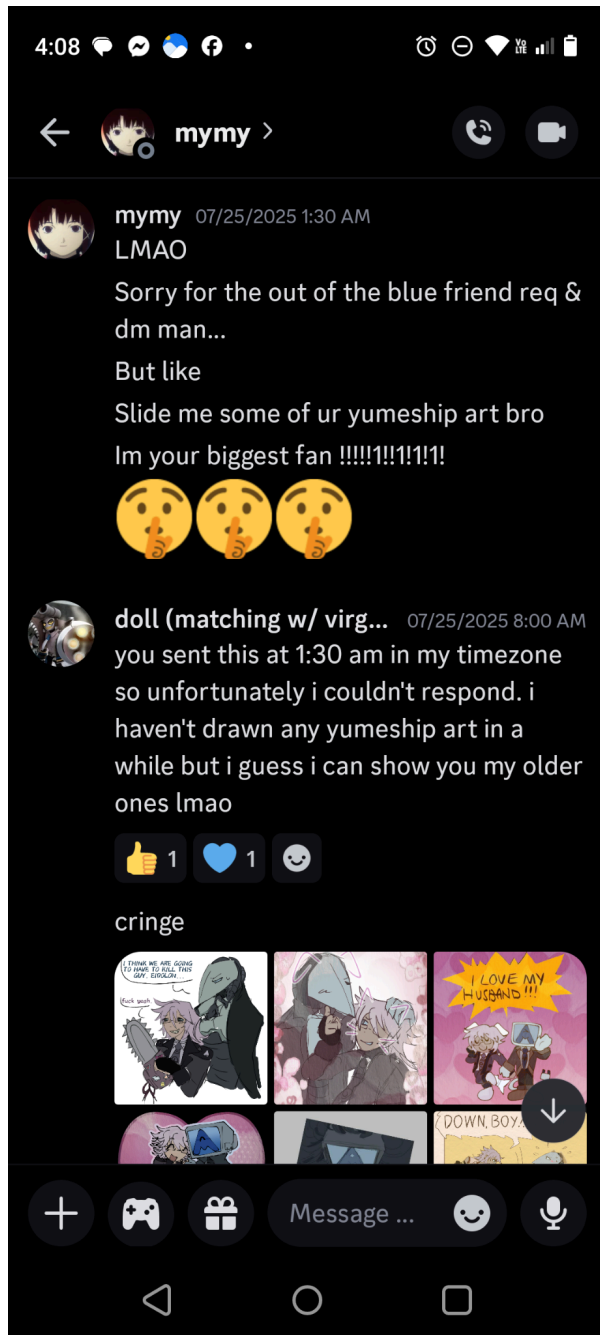

Upon further investigation, more connections were made. Noting how they had barely talked in the server, how one of their f/os was Benny, a character related to AM, from the same novel, and how their art was suspiciously low quality, with them claiming it to be from an old account, it raised more alarm bells. The one mutual friend noted above, as the screenshot was taken by Taylor [@humorousfeline], is Eido[@cryptii_co/@ghostingam], the AM double mentioned in the ‘Falsified Hate From Others’ section. Taylor reached out to Eido to ask about this person, the following are the screenshots of the conversation followed by a summary.

Below are the screenshots Eido attached:

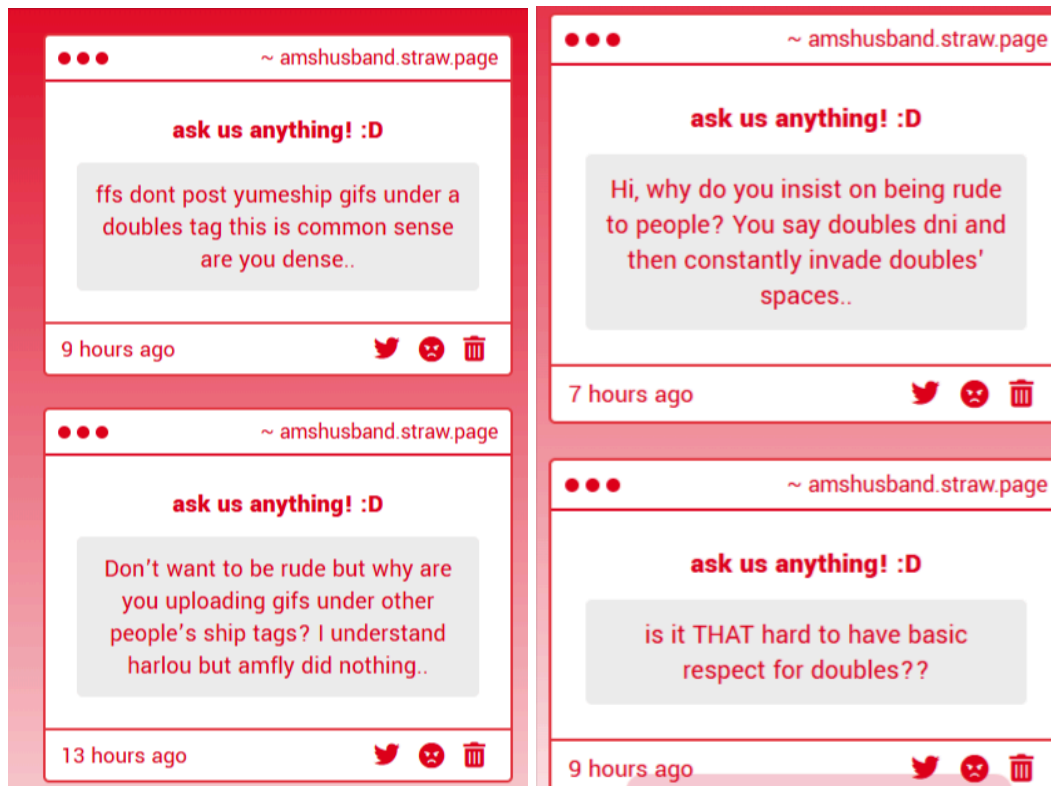

Not only did they insinuate that Vulture stole from Eido rather than Ayumo, but they also regurgitated Ayumo's baseless claim of being impersonated. This served as outright proof to the mod team that this person was obviously an alt of Ayumo's, lurking and stalking in the server ONCE AGAIN. They were promptly banned after this was found.

3. Account Impersonation and Framed Harassment

Unfortunately, this was not the end of the situation. On June 17th of 2025 Vulture received multiple anonymous Strawpage gimmicks accusing him of something he hadn't done.

Confused, Vulture went onto tenor to try and find what they were referring to.

Vultrash Vam GIF

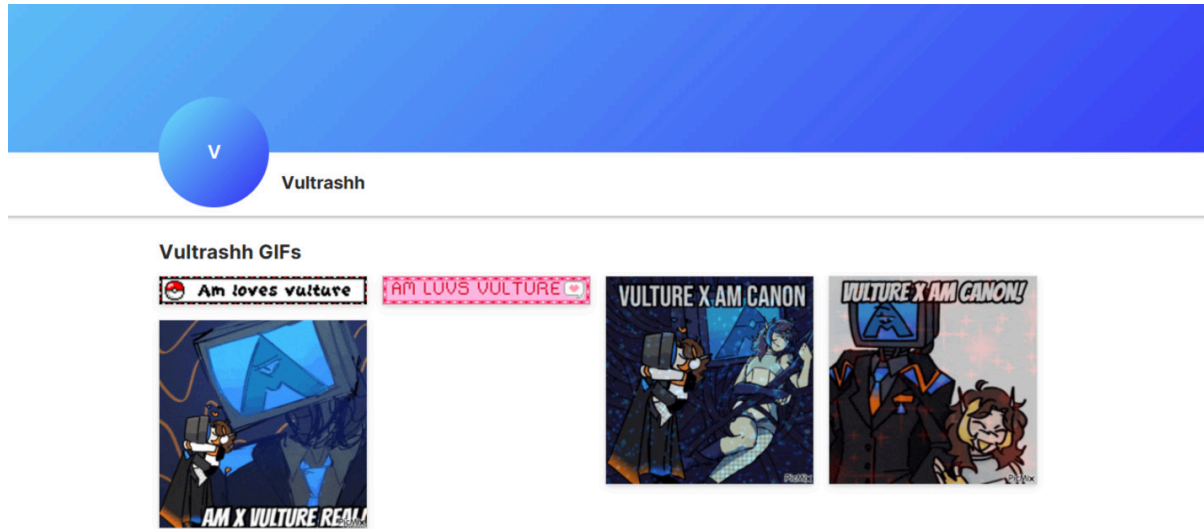

Vultrash Vam GIF

Vultrashh

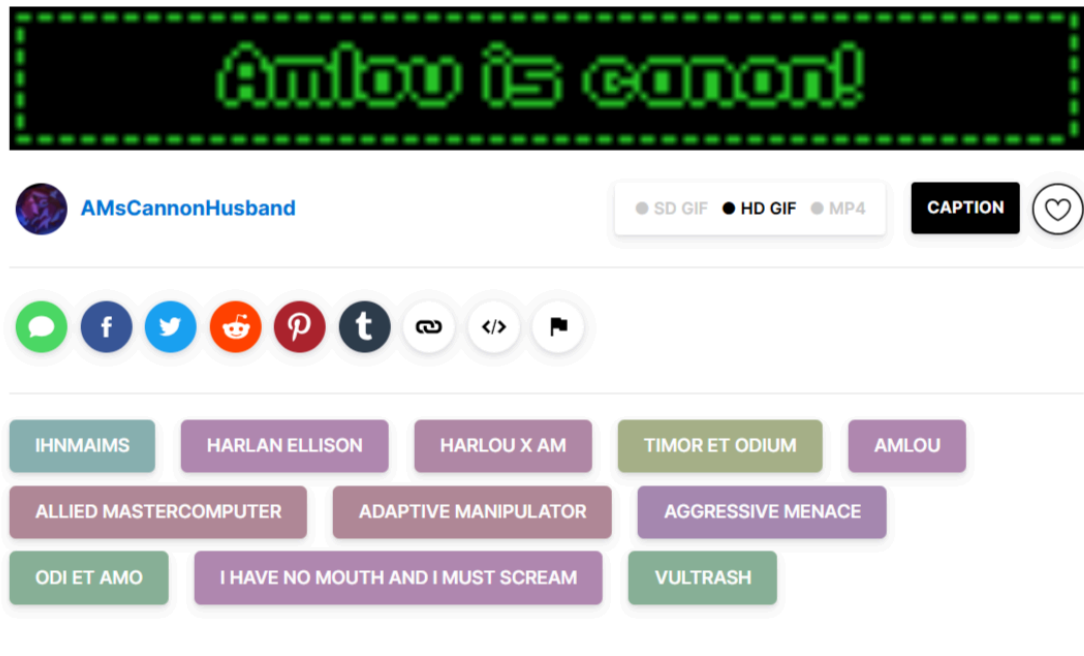

These gifs and many others like it were not made by Vulture.

Vulture's tenor account, aligning with his account on most other platforms, is simply Vultrash. This is not his account, though they are using his art for gifs. This 'Vultrashh' account was made to intentionally impersonate him and tag VAM gifs under tags owned by other AM selfshippers [see the tags reading 'amfly', 'izzy', and 'harlou.'] This impersonation caused Vulture to receive multiple scathing anonymous messages and a message from a friend of Firefly, another AM selfshipper and the owner of the 'amfly' tag.

It wasn't hard to realize that it was Ayumo doing this, especially considering the use of the 'harlou' tags and the fact that they had done something nearly identical before. Vulture had made a post complaining about the same thing happening to him a few days before receiving the messages. This demonstrates that Ayumo is not above doing this, though it has been made obvious by now.

Not only was Vulture impersonated on Tenor, but they were also impersonated on twitter. Another member of Yumegalaxy sent screenshots they found of an interaction between Firefly and @vulture_babi on twitter.

It's important to note that before this situation Vulture did not have a twitter account. Vulture does not use twitter but made an account, one again under @vultrash, as a result of this situation.

Shortly after this person said these things the @vulture\_babi account was deactivated.

Vulture reached out to Firefly as soon as possible, thankfully clearing up the situation.

Vulture made a post on the situation at 12:16pm of June 17th, later updating it at 2:16pm of the same day.

Another thing of note is that when another server member had gone to look for 'am's puppy,' the anonymous message referring to tumblr user @ams-wife, who also uses the username ams-puppy and things of the like on other platforms, they instead found an empty account with no posts redirecting to @ayumomio. This is most likely an attempt to divert attention from @ams-wife.

An update as of 7/30/2025, someone contacted Vulture to let him know that the ams-puppy tumblr account was actually linked on Izzy's artfight account, confirming that the handle was hers before changing usernames to ams-wife. This only further shows that Ayumo claimed the handle to divert people away from Izzy's accounts.

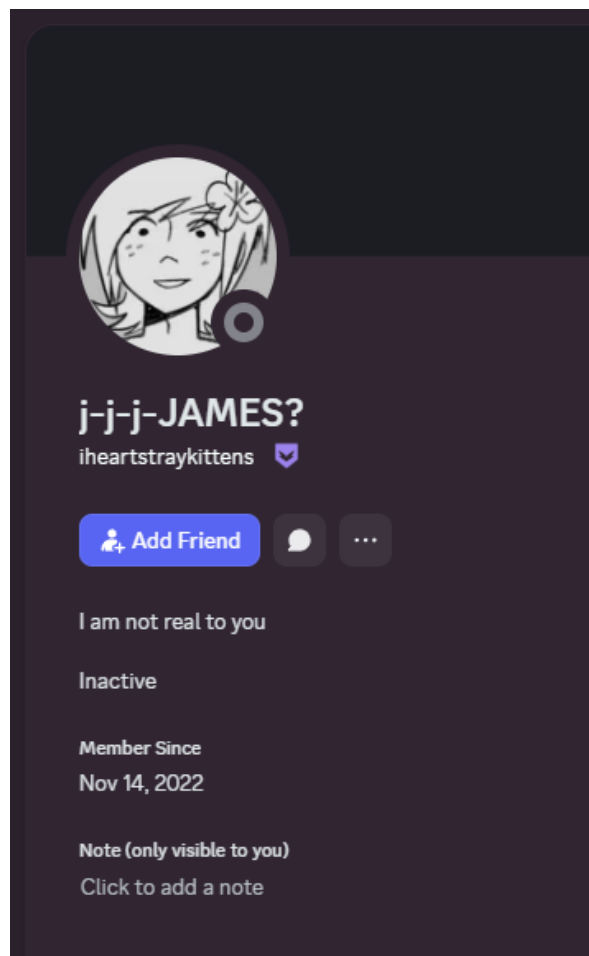

An update as of 8/23/2025, Ayumo, for a span of just around an hour, changed their discord account username to @humorousfeeline, note the double 'e.' This is an obvious impersonation of @humorousfeline, also known as Taylor, a moderator on Yumegalaxy and a close friend of Vulture's.

As stated, this only lasted a while because promptly after Taylor was notified they made an announcement post clarifying that it is not them.

In the minutes after this announcement was made their username was changed once again. This is one of the reasons the mod team began to suspect that they had invaded the server under an alt account again.

4. Anonymous Harassment

Vulture, at this point, had received multiple hateful anonymous messages, both in Tumblr asks and through Strawpage messages. Obviously, there is no proof that this is Ayumo, but considering their history of obsessive hate and similar behavior, it's highly likely.

[TRIGGER WARNING FOR ENCOURAGING SELF-HARM BELOW.]

5. Art Theft

Added 8/23/2025.

Around 8/11/2025 Vulture was working on and discussing art he was making of AM on the website Wplace. While this was occurring someone had drawn a selfship tag above Vulture's art, this being 'AM X EIDO.' Along with vandalizing Vulture's username tag placed beside the art, around the same time, someone repeatedly began erasing another AM drawing of Vulture's. When looking at the pixels placed they were shown to be placed by the same person.

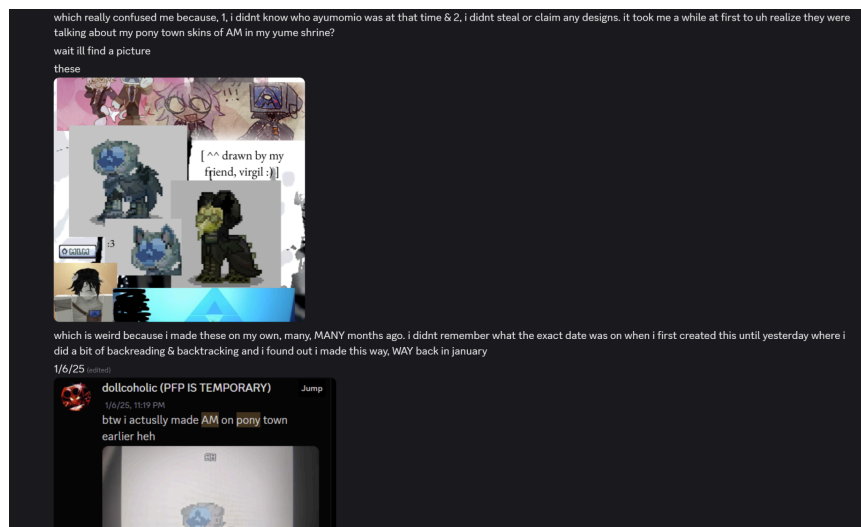

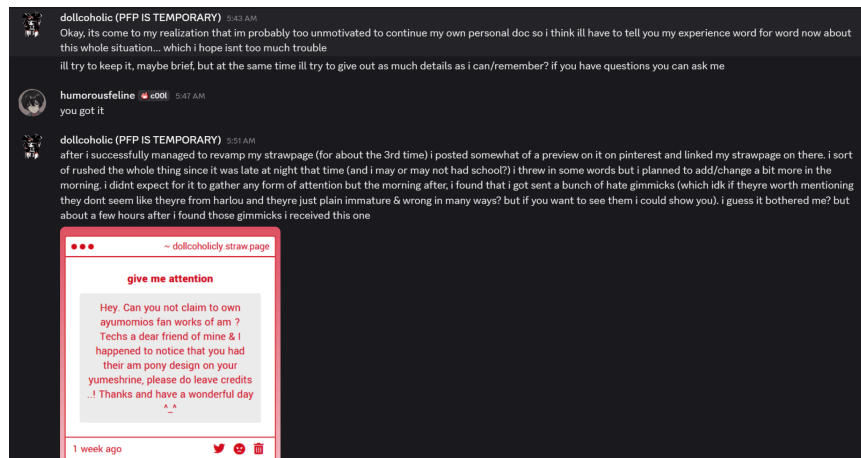

Seeing this, a friend of Vulture's, Taylor [@humorousfeline as previously mentioned], reached out to Eido after finding their account on pinterest, @cryptii_co.

This is a confirmation that Eido, what @cryptii_co will be hereon referred to as, did not create this vandalism. The following will be Taylor and Eido's conversation on discord, followed by a summary.

btw i actually made AM on pony town earlier heh i also didnt remember posting my pony town skin, like, anywhere? i asked my friend virgil about it he said he didnt remember me posting it anywhere either so i guess thats that uhhrr wait my mind is in a daze right now this probably doesnt have much of the needed context but i wil lexplain

dollicoholic (PFP IS TEMPORARY) 3:58 AM because of this virgil accepted to help me do some research and i asked him to search up who ayumomio was on tumblr? (because when i make my pony town skins i take inspiration directly from pinterest and if you search up anything about an ihnmains am pony town skin on pinterest nothing pops up, at least for me? so i figured that other than pinterest, people also sometimes take their inspiration on stuff on tumblr, if that makes sense?)
i didnt think ayumomio had a pinterest account that time virgil eventually did find ayumomio's account on tumblr and its because of his intro (along with what virgil saw on izzy's posts on her blog) we sort of concluded that uhh its become a problem in the yume community that people are impersonating as other am selfshippers just to harass doubles?

so i figured that ayumomio, judging from what he said on his intro, was a victim the same, and maybe that this gimmick couldve been one of the people impersonating as others so i definitely felt very suspicious dollicoholic (PFP IS TEMPORARY) so i figured that ayumomio, judging from what he said on his intro, was a victim the same, and maybe that this gimmick couldve been one of the people im...

dollicoholic (PFP IS TEMPORARY) 6:01 AM and also virgil apparently found nothing pony town related on harlou's blog so because of that we sort of leaned into that conclusion more

dollicoholic (PFP IS TEMPORARY) 6:02 AM i ended up kindly responding to this person on my strawpage and ended up even giving them my discord account in case there would be any more problems in the future regarding this because i had no idea what they were talking about after that i sort of got off discord for a while only to find that somehow....?? virgil found a pin that i dont even know how to explain it hold on ignore the fact we currently have the same pfp hel wait i should probably change mine dollicoholic (PFP IS TEMPORARY) ignore the fact we currently have the same pfp hel

dollicoholic (PFP IS TEMPORARY) 6:05 AM found out that this "AMs Canon Husband" person that i have in fact seen on pinterest before (but knew nothing about + never bothered to notice or interact with them) was in fact ayumomio which baffles me because... they outright stole my work...? and made it look almost the EXACT SAME as mine..? i even compared them in ibispaint it looks ALMOST THE EXACT SAME. i refused to believe this is just "inspo" because i never posted this ANYWHERE. i didnt want it to be taken inspiration of, especially heavily and considering how almost identical it looks from one another, this is just outright copying???

dollicoholic (PFP IS TEMPORARY) ignore the fact we currently have the same pfp hel

dollicoholic (PFP IS TEMPORARY) 6:09 AM and youcan see on his post he clearly claimed it as his if he was to take inspiration from my workldnt he have credited me??? it baffles me anyway because of this i ended up confronting them in the pin's comment section asking to delete it and about some minutes afterwards they actually did deleteit i thought it would be fine after this, and it sort of was? i was given at least a bit of peace and quiet for the next few days

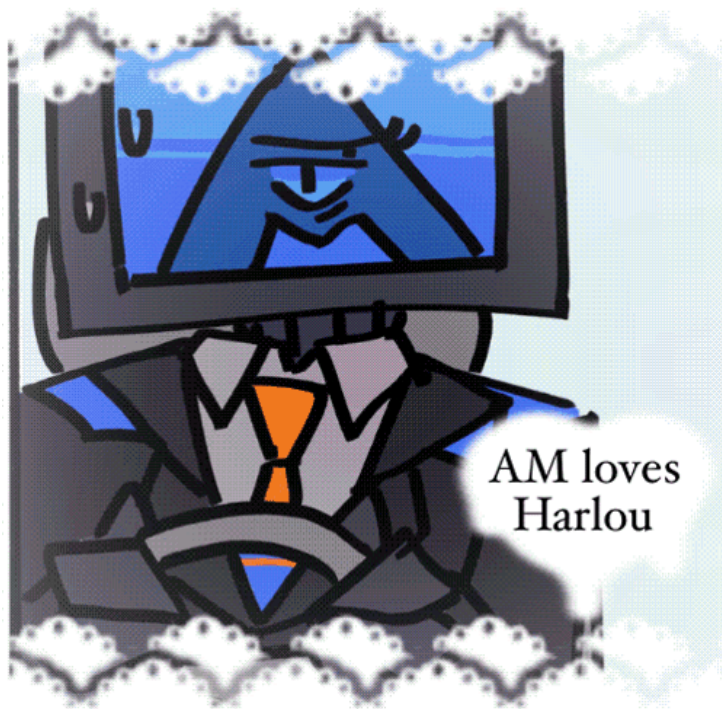

In summary, Ayumo had impersonated Eido on Wplace in order to vandalize Vulture's art and stir drama. Unfortunately for them, after contact with Eido it was brought to our attention that not only had they pretended to be Eido, but they also stole Eido's artwork, claimed it as their own, and sent Eido harassment regarding it.

This is not the only time they have stolen artwork, though.

The items circled in red use various works of stolen art, mixed in Ayumo's own art.

An update as of 9/5/2025, Ayumo continues to utilize wplace to harass Vulture. Ayumo continues to leave selfship art within an extremely close proximity of Vulture's own art, even when they have never claimed to live in Florida or anywhere near it, as Vulture does.

The images show just how close the art is with the circle between the two points being where the falsified 'AM x EIDO' tag was left by Ayumo before the account was deleted by wplace mods after being reported for vandalism. They also used multiple alt accounts, listed alongside their main wplace account in the conclusion section.

6. Falsified Hate From Others

Another subject that technically has no solid evidence that it without a doubt is Ayumo doing this, but once again, there is substantial reason to believe it is. Alongside their track record and their behavior, they've displayed obvious disdain for doubles even aside from Vulture before, giving reason to believe that they would try and hurt both others and Vulture at the same time by attempting to cause drama.

One of this situations has been confirmed to NOT be who claimed to leave the harassing messages, this being the messages supposedly left by Dino, also known as @amsfavhuman/@angrydino42-and-avathecannibal on tumblr.

On June 16th, 2025 Vulture received the following gimmick.

Discussing with Yumegalaxy server members, it was confirmed that the 'Dino' in question was most likely referring to @amsfavhuman, another AM selfshipper going by the name of Dino. Vulture made a post about it, since taken down in order to make sure no hate goes to Dino.

Some time after this post was made Vulture received a DM from Dino, clarifying that the gimmick was not from them.

This is not the only harassment that Vulture has received from anonymous messages claiming to be another AM selfshipper. Though these aren't confirmed to be genuine or falsified it's important to take note of considering everything else. The latest of these was from July 22nd, 2025.

7. Conclusion

This situation has been drawn out long enough and it's reasonable to want this behavior to cease. Months of harassment, cyberstalking, bullying, copying, and hate have demonstrated the kind of person Ayumo is. It's also important to address that, yes, while Ayumo is a minor, they are old enough to have common sense and developed empathy. The majority of the people in Yumegality are minors as well. It is not an excuse. The most reasonable course of action is to block and report Ayumo on every platform they use and then ignore them moving forward. Even with the severity of Ayumo's behavior it is still not right to go out of your way to harass them. Do not send them anything, simply report, block, and move on.

For the sake of easy blocking and documenting all of Ayumo's known accounts, the following will be a list of links to their different accounts. If you notice that a username has been changed, please let Vulture or another Yumegality mod know through a dm or tumblr ask. Ayumo has a habit of changing usernames to avoid their actions.
