ONLINE LAN LOW TIER DRAMAS

Hi my name is Hlias “LuiS” Giannoukos. I am member of the SmashCore eSport team and company Nintendo Next.
Our title "Low Tier Dramas" is something common at many communities but when starts to make problems to something healthy after many free hours of hard work you need to fight back to protect it.
I needed to write about the greek smash scene because I am a part of it till 2015 and i saw many things happen around all this time. First of all I met Angelos “AkiraGr” Zochios and Michalis “Jesteros” Skaltsounakis on a super smash bros wii u tourney in 2015 it was something new and hyped for Greece that time. After that hyped tour they started the SmashCore eSport team and make season tours for super smash bros wii u and after a few months i joined them.
All started to going well that time but after all these years till now many things happened from some people and AkiraGr as an owner of both organizations tries to protect the greek smash scene at any cost about his name and his actions but for me he is doing the best he can do and i agree with AkiraGr`s statement about many of the unknown sides of things about that twit of Petros “SP1” Athanasakis and his crusade of lies and deceit against Angelos “AkiraGr” Zochios name. Even his former partner Sozon “Sozonm7” Moraitis exposes Sp1 for lying and deceit. Using fraudulent makeup stories and “proofs” to sabotage AkiraGr and Smashcore.
As of now all people in SmashCore team and I agree again with Angelos “AkiraGr” Zochios statement about former SmashCore members [Alexandros “Doperman” Papadimitriou] , [Giannis “Sido” Volis] , [Romanos “Oktrek” Mourikis] they are dispicable people with childish behavour saying “We can do everything better than SmashCore” but we can see their actions after they were ousted from SmashCore and made their own team "spanakopita" doing nothing rather than defame us, but this is another story. After we fired them things are doing better.
They charged AkiraGr about half-truths and lies as facts before and after they were removed from smashcore to other players from greek smash scene [Dimitris “Dr.Papaphilips” Tsouxnikas] , [Dimitris “Mimakos: Gianikopoulos] , [Loukas “Quackstorm” Skotiniotis],[Stelios “TakeASoda” Laoudis] resulting manipulating this people and till now they all try to sabotage our work that we builded 5 years now.
In the end Angelos “AkiraGr” Zochios is a clean of this allegations and a honest guy. SmashCore team doing their best for growing a healthy happy community that loves their passion for Super Smash Bros and Nintendo.
