

TRANS PRIDE EXETER

ST SIDWELL TIME TABLE

Time	Space	Event	Description
2:00pm - 2:45pm	Old Chapel All workshop Details can be found here or on Linktree.	Creative Writing Workshop	Ever wanted to try your hand at writing flash fiction, but struggle with coming up with your own ideas? Viktor Athelstan will show you how he gets ideas when he struggles for inspiration and every participant will write their own flash fiction story. Register here to book your place.
3:15pm - 4:00pm		Queerotype - sun printing the rainbow	Sun print the rainbow with Dimitrios Theodoraki! Come and create beautiful prints in the colours of the Trans and other LGBTQ+ flags. This alternative photographic process is like Cyanotype and works even when the Sun isn't shining. All materials will be provided but feel free to bring along anything you'd like to print with such as ferns and flowers. You'll leave with your own unique prints and pride flag (yes you can print on fabric!). Register here to book your place.
4:15pm - 5:00pm		Writing the Extraordinary Trans Mundane	While trans lives are currently so politicised, our every moment is revolutionary. As trans lives are always so divine, our every moment is a poem. Join Casey Garfield in reading contemporary trans poets, finding inspiration, and capturing the poetry of our incredible trans everyday. Register here to book your place.

5:15pm - 6:00pm		Queer letter writing for activism	Why should TERFs have all the letter-writing campaigns?! The Queer Rights Union aims to change that! This workshop will give you tips on writing letters to politicians on a variety of queer issues, whether through email or traditional mail. We provide the resources, you provide the enthusiasm! Register here to book your place.
2:00pm - 4:45pm Films will run on repeat approx every 75 mins throughout the afternoon All Film Details Here or on Linktree	The Harry Hems Room	Dear Wes - The Pledge Produced by TransMatters 16 mins long	“Dear Wes...” is a personal letter from the UK’s transgender community. In part one - The pledge - we meet trans adults, trans kids, and the people who are fighting for their cause. They share their hopes, fears, and the promises they’re making to themselves and each other in the face of rising hostility and erasure.
		Dear Wes - The Turn Produced by TransMatters 50 mins long	“Dear Wes...” is a personal letter from the UK’s transgender community. Part 2 - The Turn - breaks down the argument against Puberty Blockers for transgender youth. Shifting from intimacy to impact, this film traces the political and personal consequences of being trans in the UK.
		15 Years of Exeter Pride: Trans & Non-Binary Voices Produced by Exeter Pride 6 mins long	In celebration of the inaugural Trans Pride Exeter, Exeter Pride have released a new film highlighting the voices of trans and non-binary individuals from the 15 Years of Exeter Pride heritage project. Ranging from personal memories of the first Exeter Pride march to the challenges the community is facing in the present the film shines light on this often marginalised part of the LGBTQ+ community.
2:00pm - 6.00pm	The Rougement Room	Change your name by Deed Poll	Want to change your name? We will have the paper forms and can provide witnesses - you just need to bring proof of identity, like a passport, birth certificate, or certificate of naturalisation.
1.00pm - 6.00pm	Cafe Area	Cafe	Open all afternoon for hot and cold drinks, and cake.
2.00pm - 6.00pm	The Rougement Room	Art Market	Browse the art & crafts stalls of talented Trans, non-binary and intersex artists and makers.
