Quick Notes

- I will post the resources to complete all activities in Google Classroom as they are assigned during the week.
- If students are unable to join us live, I will send lessons to the students on Google Classroom.
- Due dates are flexible and if additional time is needed to complete any assignments I will work with each student individually to set a date that works for them.
- If you have questions or concerns, please contact me ehoffman@pvillecsd.org
