

Cancellation & Refund Policies

If a student wishes to withdraw from a course, they should inform the Director of Education immediately. Curious Comedy is unable to provide refunds or cancel installment plans. Credits may be issued for future courses upon student withdrawal under the following provisions:

7-WEEK COURSES

A full credit is available only when withdrawal notification is received by noon (12:00pm) one week prior to the start of the course. For example, refund requests for a Monday night class must be received by Monday at noon the week before.

For withdrawal after 12:00 p.m. one week prior and before the start of the first class, students may receive a 50% credit of the full tuition.

THERE ARE NO CREDITS AVAILABLE if you request a withdrawal from a course on or after the first day of class.

To request a credit, contact curiouscomedytc@gmail.com to submit a request.

1-2 DAY WORKSHOPS

Because of their lower price, all workshops are non-refundable.

COURSE TRANSFERS

If a course has not started and the student wants to transfer into a different course or an equivalent course which meets on a different day or at a different time that has also not started, the student may submit a request directly to the Director of Education. In most cases, once the course has started the student cannot switch into a different class.

Procedure For Obtaining A Credit

All credit requests must be submitted in writing via email to the Director of Education (curiouscomedytc@gmail.com).

Students seeking a credit or a partial credit, assuming that their withdrawal from class follows all provisions outlined in this policy, should send an email to the Director of Education as soon as they have decided to withdraw. The Training Center will act on each request within four (4) weeks of such request.

Instructor Changes

Curious reserves the right to change the Instructor of a class at any time, and doing so does not entitle students to a refund. If there is ANY issue at ANY time with a class or a registration, students are encouraged to contact the Director of Education directly at curiouscomedytc@gmail.com to resolve the issue.

Refund Policy Context

As a non-profit, Curious calculates enrollment into the classes we greenlight, the scholarships we offer, and the resources we are able to invest in order to make these courses happen. Our classes have limited rosters available, and the number of registrants in each class is a critical factor in course viability and efficacy. For this reason, we are unable to offer refunds.
