PART II: REFLECTION

What brought you here? What are you looking to get out of this Madrichim experience?

What do you feel you can bring to a classroom (in either an in-person or online setting)?
(Skills/strengths? Things you need help with?)

The highlight(s) of my experience as a student at TST or my previous community was:

Something(s) that challenged me in my experience as a student at TST or my previous community was:

PART III. PROGRAM ASSIGNMENTS-

Hineini Jewish Journey sessions are currently planned to occur in person (K-2 meeting every Sunday, and half of grades 3-6 meeting Sunday with the other half meeting Wednesday), and small-group Hebrew sessions are planned to occur online. If you sign up to be a Hebrew Madrich/a/kol, you will be matched with a specific group of students with whom you will work the entire year. Hebrew will be offered on: Wednesdays, Sundays, and Thursdays.

Related to the above, I am interested in:

- Sunday only (9:00am-11:00am)
- Wednesday only (4:00-6:00pm)
- Either Sunday or Wednesday
- Thursday (online only) (4:30pm-6:00pm)
- Being In Person
- Being Online

We will once again be offering the role of STEM Madrichim for the coming year. In addition, we will be offering a role for Social Media and Office Madrichim.

Jewish Journey Madrichim will get to work with students in an engaging values-based (Middot) curriculum.

Please select ONE specialty and number and rank the top 3 grades that interest you, with the understanding that I will place you in the area of need.

PART V: MADRICHIM BRIT AVODAH (Work Contract/Agreement)

Substances: I will not possess, consume, or distribute any illegal substances on the premises, nor shall I enter the premises under the influence of any such substances.

Language: I will refrain from using inappropriate, offensive, or hurtful language.

Attendance: I agree to come on time to Religious School (8:45am Sun./3:45pm Wed.) unless I have notified the Assistant Director of Education and my Classroom Teaching Team in advance.

Communication: I agree to proactively communicate regarding any absences (as early as I am able), and I will be a responsive and active member of all Teacher/Cohort group chats and work-related text conversations.

Social Media: As a representative of Temple Shir Tikva, I agree to maintain a positive presence online, and to refrain from posting about the teachers or the students with whom I work.

Attire: I agree to dress in an appropriate manner that reflects Shir Tikva's values (e.g. in a way that supports my comfort and presence, and does not detract from the comfort of others.)

Presence: I agree to participate fully with my cooperating teacher and to be attentive to the students in the class.

Conduct: I agree to conduct myself in a mature and professional manner. (No texting or cell phone use during class.)

Commitment: I agree to attend the Madrichim Orientation on Wednesday September 9th (6:15pm-8:15pm) as well as additional Madrichim workshops to be held during or outside of my Sunday morning commitment. I agree to attend meetings with my classroom team as scheduled; mandatory Madrichim trainings; and seasonal Madrichim check-ins.

Reflection: I agree to respond to a short reflection form or email each Sunday following class.

By signing this agreement I agree, if chosen, to participate as a Madrikol according to the conditions stated above.

Student signature Date

By signing this agreement I/we agree, as the parent/guardian(s) of a prospective Madrikol, to make sure that my (our) child abides by the conditions stated above.
