

In northern Maine, deer herd shrinks despite efforts to rebuild it May 13, 2014

Kennebec Journal

... Northern Maine was once a haven for deer hunters, but decades-long efforts to revitalize the region's deer herd have failed to produce the results biologists envisioned. ... After the severity of this past winter, state deer biologist Kyle Ravana said the state will give out up to 10,000 fewer any-deer permits ... When they started cutting deer yards, they pretty much wiped out the deer herd in northern Maine [a hunting guide] ...
