

Support Maui - Resources

Last updated Thursday, August 10, 2023

Hundreds of families have been displaced, dozens of businesses have burned, and there's a strong chance some people have died. Many pets have died. Winds have finally died down, allowing for helicopters to assist in controlling the fires. Kahului Airport (OGG) is still open and has sheltered over 1,800 people overnight. Maui and the Big Island have had some terrible fires since yesterday. - LahainaTown
