Course Overview

(Enter the course description)

Learning Outcomes

(Learning outcomes are clear statements of the knowledge, competencies or skills you expect students to have acquired by the end of the course (e.g., "By the end of this course students should be able to synthesize information from..." or "make predictions" or "solve problems").)

Course Content

(A description of the topics to be addressed in the course. If appropriate, explain what the course is not about or what topics will not be covered.)

Instructional Method

(Provide a brief description of instructional approaches that will be used during the course (e.g., lectures, seminars, group projects).)

Required Course Materials

(Provide specific information about required readings, software...)

Assessment

(A description of the means of evaluation to be used in the course: The purpose of evaluation is to provide feedback to students on their learning, as well as to permit the instructor to assign a fair grade at the end of the course. Providing explicit information about assignments and grading procedures will clarify expectations and allay student anxiety, while supporting students in pacing their studies, gauging their progress, and achieving learning outcomes.)
