Social Studies/Science: Our unit this week is on "Community Helpers." We will be discussing what a community helper is, the different jobs they have, and how they help the community.

Special notices

We have had a great week! Progress reports are coming home today, please remember to sign and return them. This newsletter is for the week we come back from Thanksgiving break. There is an awards ceremony coming up in December. Continue to read library books for points. All classes need snacks. Thanks for all of your help and support!!
