

Ollie's Commission Information:

How To Commision Me:

If you'd like to grab a slot either DM me on Twitter or send me an FA note! For further discussion if preferred I can use Discord or Telegram.

When messaging me, please already have a rough idea of what you'd like your story to include, such as:

- Characters
- Theme & Story
- Kinks
- Details and things you'd like me to focus on
- Rough idea of the word count/your budget

General restrictions:

I am happy to write about most kinks with few limitations. Please discuss what you'd like the story to contain in detail, as I hold the right to refuse anything I am not comfortable describing. Generally, this would include anything involving underage characters, including canon characters that are 'aged up'. I will only include canon characters that are 18+ in any fetish fiction. I am comfortable writing about most 18+ canon characters, but there may be some that I decline. I would generally prefer to instead use OCs in whatever stories are commissioned.

Payments, Refunds, Adjustments:

I do not take payment upfront as this is not a model that works for me. We will discuss your commission and a word count, where I will advise you of how much the story will be. Only once I have finished writing will I take payment, whereafter I will send you the first draft of the story. After any final edits have been made we will consider the commission as finished.

As I do not take payment until the work is actually finished I will not offer refunds under any circumstances.

Major adjustments to the story will only be made if there is a clear and obvious error on my behalf, such as misinterpreting character references or misreading information. I do not take responsibility for incorrect refs or miswritten descriptions. Any grammatical errors missed during proofreading the story will be fixed as well.

If you do not pay for your commission you will be blacklisted.

Being unwilling, incapable, or unable to pay for the story in the timeframe we have agreed upon will result in you being blacklisted. There are certain circumstances where this may not be the case, as I absolutely understand that unexpected life events can and will happen. However my time is limited and commission work is already volatile, so please understand that I need to ensure as much stability as possible.

Please note that if you wish to keep your story private you must discuss this with me before I agree to start work.

Timeframes and order of work:

Commissions will be completed in the order in which they are received. I expect to finish each commission within a month however please allow for up to two months for work to be finished before we consider the commission as cancelled. Exceptions are made for any 'rush slots', wherein work will be completed within 48 hours, otherwise your commission will instead be charged the normal rate.

My rights/responsibilities:

- Privacy, safety, and should not receive hostility or aggression.
- The right to refuse any commission work with or without reason.
- The right to decline work if it is not within my limits.
- The right to block/refuse to work with anyone I do not feel comfortable around.

- Communicate all updates and news in regards to your story.

Your rights/responsibilities:

Rush Slots:

I will only accept rush slots if my schedule is clear and I know I am able to complete work within 48 hours. This 48 hours starts from the time that we have agreed upon all details of your commission and we have agreed that I can start work. If I am unable to complete your story within this timeframe, I will instead only charge you the normal rate or we can cancel the commission provided work has not yet started.

Communication:

All clients must provide me with a method of communication so that I can provide updates and ask any necessary questions. This can include but is not limited to: Twitter DMs, Telegram, Discord, Email.

At this time I am only able to accept payment via PayPal, through which I will send you an invoice detailing the services you have paid for.

These Terms of Service are subject to change without notice and MUST be read by anyone intending to commission me.
