Bio on Hal Haller

Hal Haller is an entrepreneurial leader who has started and revitalized several churches. A graduate of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, he has trained, encouraged, and coached pastors and church planters for nearly 30 years. Over the last 13 years, he has served as the Missional Strategist in the Jacksonville Baptist Association, the Associate Executive Director of the Baptist Convention of New England, and as the New York Church Planting Director in a combined role for the North American Mission Board and Baptist Convention of New York.

In addition, he has advised, coached and trained leaders in several denominations and networks and as well as conducted professional consultations with numerous churches and organizations. He is the cofounder of ReproducingChurches.com, a network of churches that work together for the multiplication of new churches, the founder of the Kineo Group (kineogroup.org) that provides coaching and consultations with business leaders, and the director of Shepherd Rest (shepherdrest.com) that provides rest and renewal for pastors in crisis.

He is married to Sharon for 32 years and has two children: Hal Haller IV - a graduate of Talbot Seminary and Alexandra Haller - a graduate of Palm Beach Atlantic College. He's a football enthusiast, loves playing guitar and hanging out at the beach. He currently resides in St Augustine, Florida.
