

PARAGRAPH 1: Opening Scene:

The Opening Scene:

<https://www.youtubeeducation.com/watch?v=z5VEbmYJG4w>

Task 1:

Describe what is happening in this scene: (Explain what is happening in this scene - what impression do you get from this scene? What mood or tone do you get from this scene?) Sentence Starter: In this scene we see....
What are some of the film techniques used in this scene? (What are the film techniques used) Sentence starter: The film techniques that have been used well in this scene are ...
How does the director use these techniques in the scene? (Explain how these techniques highlight or show the audience about the main character) Sentence Starter: The director uses the techniques in the scene when...

Who is the target audience in this scene? How do you know?

(Based on the scene and the techniques used, who do you think the target audience of this film is? Explain how the techniques etc give you an idea of who the target audience is for this film?)

Sentence Starter: The intended audience of this film are ... The impact that this scene has on them is that they can...

What is the director's purpose in this scene?

(Put yourself in the director's position - what do you think his intention is with this opening scene? What is he trying to tell the audience about the character, film, storyline? Why did the director do this? What is the director trying to tell the audience through this scene?)

Sentence Starter: The director is trying to highlight that

Evaluation - Link to the statement you have chosen and explain whether you AGREE or DISAGREE with the statement.

Sentence Starter: The statement I have chosen is ... This scene helps to show that ...
---	--