Statement from the President

At the request of the Vice President, Vice President Ibney00 will not be joining my ticket for my re-election campaign. Vice President Ibney is a fighter for America and has done our nation proud as Vice President. The Vice President is my best friend and I am genuinely sad to see him leave my side at the end of this term. With that said, I am completely understanding of his decision to leave my ticket.

Vice President Ibney has always been very interested in the American judicial system. He is barred and has participated in so many legal cases throughout the time before being Vice President. As Vice President Ibney told me, “I am ready to retire from politics and pursue judicial pursuits, which is my true calling.” As one of his best friends, I want him to do what makes him happy.

I will miss having Ibney as my running mate and having him as basically my “side kick.” I want to wish Vice President Ibney well on his judicial pursuits and I know that he is going to make one hell of a judge, lawyer, or whatever he decides to do regarding law. I will be announcing my new running mate in the coming months before the election. My new running mate will be someone that can help unify this nation and will be able to fill the huge shoes left by Vice President Ibney.

Thank you Vice President Ibney for all you have done for me, my administration, and this country. You will be dearly missed during my second term in the White House. Thank you, God bless you, and God bless the United States of America!
