

Rebecca

Bluegarden

Name:

Rebecca Bluegarden

World/Verse:

Eden's Zero

Personality:

Rebecca is a friendly and bubbly person. She tends to act on impulse in carefree settings and stay back when it comes to fighting. However, with her friend Happy, she's very headstrong, aggressive, and crass personality. During her travels she stands up for what is right and doesn't cower in the face of danger. She is a kind and selfless individual ready to protect those in need. She also sees herself as a famous B-cuber willing to even use her looks to get followers.

"Being friends goes beyond human or machine!"

Biography:

Rebecca was born and raised in Glohalm. Her mother died in childbirth and was orphaned at four when her father refused to look at her and the debt he owed. This left Rebecca wandering around the streets, usually finding shelter in sewer pipes, behind trees, or sometimes, behind trash cans in alleyways. Her only friends were the cats that ran wild.

At the age of 8, an old lady found her in an alleyway. Thinking she was going to live in a nice home Rebecca followed eagerly but learned that she was selling her off claiming it was her granddaughter to pay off some of her own debt. She was sold to a very rich man who she lived with until she was 17 by escaping when she was asked to fetch a doctor. This was the first time she left the place in almost ten years and she seized the opportunity and ran to Belfiore to hide.
