Mentor Club - COMING SOON

Paris Wicklin, Club Advisor

At Lincoln Charter School, we pride ourselves in being a K-12 Community. The Mentor Club embodies that sense of community by allowing for cross-age peer mentoring. The purpose is to help create a positive outcome for both mentors and mentees by increasing their connectedness to school and their peers, gaining self-efficacy and competency, increasing academic achievement, and creating prosocial behavior and attitudes. This program, in essence, is about building relationships. The mentors are presently in 10-12 grades and the mentees can be in grades K-12.
