

Little Ballers Lead Coach (part-time, Winnipeg & Surrounding Areas)

$20/hour

Paid twice monthly via. direct deposit (option for mailed cheques)

Who we're looking for:

The successful candidate can perform duties as a little BALLERS Lead Coach and will be responsible for delivering our weekly classes.

The ideal candidate

- Wants to refine their coaching skills and loves learning and self-improvement.
- Is great with children and enthusiastic.
- Approachable, energetic and animated!
- Self-starter with a talent in multi-tasking, who can lead others.

Like the kids we teach- little BALLERS is constantly growing! Our ideal candidates are individuals who not only meet the criteria outlined, but are a good fit for our long-term vision.

Those who are interested in teaching and/or coaching as a profession, would be an amazing fit for this job, as the work experience will directly and immediately sharpen your coaching, teaching and classroom management skills. Therefore, teaching physical education, early childhood education and other organized recreational programming is a valuable asset. We are looking for people who are passionate about teaching and love to build rapport and connect with students and families.

Duties/Expectations:

-Availability to work a minimum of 1 day/ week: The candidate must be available to work during a block of consecutive class times. As well as, make time for paid training and session planning.

Annual Schedule:

Term	Start Date	End Date
------	------------	----------

Fall Session	2nd week in September	2nd week in November
Winter Session	2nd week in January	4th week in March
Spring Sessions	3rd week in April	4th week in June
Summer Sessions	3rd week in June	4th week in August
JAM Sessions	JAM sessions can start at any time and are 4 weeks in duration.

Note

- The dates reflected in the above table are not concrete. They may change due to availability of facilities.

-Pre-Program and Post-Program: Review the practice plan ahead of time, clearly review the practice plan with assistant coaches, lead in the set up and tear down of the classes, while maintaining the ability to greet and say goodbye to participants and their parents. Coaches are paid to be there for pre and post program tasks, adequate time is built in before and after so you are never rushed.

-Builds Rapport: All successful little BALLERS coaches view it as their privilege to get to know the little ones in their classes. This means they make it a top priority to learn their names as quickly as possible, and have the desire and the ability to connect with the students and their families.

-Interest in Early Childhood Development: Little BALLERS MB Ltd. currently offers programming for children ages 1-8 years old. Successful candidates must be genuinely interested in the development and well being of young children. As well as, be excited and open to differentiating instruction for children with developmental delays and/or disabilities. The large majority of little BALLERS programming is designed for toddlers (1-3) and preschoolers (3-5).

-Performative Coaching: The ideal candidate is professional, without being stiff. They can captivate children's attention. They are ready to be on display and use their voice, facial expression, and body gestures to deliver a quick instruction via. imaginative play scenarios, explanations and demonstrations. The successful candidate should have experience following formal practice and/or lesson plans which include written instructions and drawings.

-Multi-tasker: The successful candidate can be described as a personable leader, who can provide calm and clear directions in a busy space, can improvise and adlib. They should be comfortable giving directions to players and coaches while keeping track of session pacing/timing.

-Social Media Savvy: The successful candidate is comfortable with being featured in social media content and able to use their own working cell phone with available storage to record short videos and take pictures for use on little BALLERS MB Ltd. social media platforms. The images/videos can be immediately exported post-session, there is no obligation to archive pictures/videos. At little BALLERS MB Ltd. we work as a team to produce content for our social media platforms. All social media obligations are to be completed in the paid time pre or post program.

How to apply:

Step 1: Complete introduction questionnaire. Click Here

Step 2: Email your resume to info@littleballersbasketball.com

We value your time, that is why we contact every candidate and let them know if we would like to move forward with an interview. In the meantime, we recommend you get to know more about us (if you haven't already!). Please check out our website www.littleballersbasketball.com