I'm so glad I discovered your blog. As someone who's just started working at Hill House, it's a great vantage point on the Hill. And as someone who loves to eat, I appreciate the intro to Grandma B's Cafe, Z Best and Mr. D's. I look forward to new restaurants opening up...

Though it doesn't help with the after 6:00 p.m. urge for eating, Patrix Cafe in the Hill House's Kaufmann Center should be added to any list of eateries. The food is fresh and delicious! And while great soups, sandwiches, wraps and salads are favorite choices, Patrix is not just standard lunch fare. Sides include sleek, orzo with roasted vegetables and lemon, and a terrific broccoli slaw...

Thanks for the comment and compliment, Maggie. Since I wrote this post, I have had the sleek from Patrix's and it was excellent! Thanks for adding Patrix to the food discussion in the Hill. By the way, can you give insight as to where the name came from?
