Introduction

Black Therapists and Allies Across Canada

Before beginning, we would like to commend you on prioritizing your mental health and for taking this first step towards accessing mental health services.

This document contains a list of mental health providers across Canada who are either Black or allies. This was collected by volunteer Canadian medical students on behalf of the Black Medical Students' Association of Canada (BMSAC). As none of these providers were vetted nor verified by BMSAC, readers are encouraged to review the profiles and decide for themselves whose services they would like to access. This document does not endorse the services of all the listed individuals but rather, provides information to help Black Canadians seeking mental health services.

If you are a mental health provider who would like to be included, please fill out this form here. For any questions, concerns, feedback pertaining to this document or requests to change information, please email BMSAC at communications@bmsac.ca.

Thérapeutes noir.e.s et allié.e.s à travers le Canada

Avant de commencer, nous voulons vous féliciter d'avoir pris le temps de prioriser votre santé mentale ainsi que de prendre ce premier pas afin d'accéder à des services de santé mentale.

Ce document comprend une liste de services de santé mentale à travers le Canada offerts par des prestataires noir.e.s ainsi que des allié.e.s. Le tout a été recueilli par des étudiant.e.s en médecine canadien.ne.s bénévoles au nom de l'Association canadienne des étudiants noirs en médecine (BMSAC). Étant donné qu'aucun de ces prestataires de santé mentale n'a été contrôlé ou vérifié par l'association, les lecteurs sont encouragés à lire les profils et décider pour eux-mêmes les services auxquels ils/elles aimeraient avoir accès. Ce document n'appuie pas les services de tous les prestataires cités mais fournit plutôt des renseignements afin d'aider les Canadien.ne.s noir.e.s à la recherche de services de santé mentale.

Si vous êtes un.e prestataire de services de santé mentale qui aimerait être inclus dans la liste, remplissez le formulaire ici. Si vous avez des questions, des inquiétudes, des commentaires relatifs à ce document ou bien une requête pour mettre à jour l'information, s'il vous plaît envoyez un courriel à BMSAC à l'adresse suivante: communications@bmsac.ca.

2-3 sentences about yourself / 2-3 phrases à propos de vous :

Alexander McKenzie, born and raised in Montreal, has been a sexologist since completing his studies at UQAM (Université de Québec à Montréal) in 2013. Currently, he offers both individual and couples counseling via private practice, as well as offering his services as a sexologist for Option Sexologie, a sexology agency.

As an anglophone, gay, black man living in Quebec, but also thanks to his experiences as a trainer, conference speaker, group animator and counsellor, Alexander has been able to develop a unique perspective and understanding in regards to the various personal and social issues that can have an impact on the global sexual health of men who have sex with men and other minorities. That being said, his door is open to people of all walks of life.

Above all else, Alexander wants to ensure that those who come to see him are assured a safe space where they can express themselves, free of judgements and taboos, to facilitate living their sexuality and interpersonal relationships in both a fulfilling and satisfying way.

Website / Site web: Dr. Ali views individuals as a dynamic system with the potential to evolve, revolve, and involve. Like planets or atoms, she believes that multiple gravitational forces can impact the trajectory of an individual, such as past experiences (positive and traumatic), family and other significant influences, cultural identity, biological factors, the systems that people operate within, current relationships, current stage of life, and future goals, such as career aspirations. As such, Dr. Ali adopts an integrative approach in counselling, and this includes emotion-focused, cognitive-behavioural, developmental, psychodynamic, anti-oppressive, community, and existential perspectives to promote healing and strength resiliency.

What experiences and qualifications do you have in providing anti-oppressive and anti-racist therapy? What competencies do you have working with Black individuals? / Quelles expériences et qualifications avez-vous dans l'offre d'une thérapie anti-oppressive et anti-raciste? Quelles compétences ou expériences de travail avez-vous auprès de la communauté noire?: I am a newly graduated counsellor so my experiences in providing anti-oppressive and anti-racist therapy specifically are limited. However, as I am queer, and see primarily queer clients, the work I do is based on anti-oppression. My practice was born out of how we often have to do an extra layer of educating our counsellors to just receive a basic understanding of either our gender identities, sexual orientations, sexualities, or relationship dynamics to name a few.

However, despite my lived experience, I do not position myself as an expert. The client still has the most intimate knowledge of their experience. This extends into competencies with clients who are Black and queer/transgender/non-binary in that I do not ask my clients to educate me. Instead, if I am finding there's an experience I am less familiar with, I will take it upon myself to educate myself outside of the session both proactively and reactively.

I have been in anti-oppression and advocacy work for the LGBTQIA2s+ community since coming out, and of course that intersected with anti-racism work. The learning I have done is on my own time, learning from people of different groups to gain a broader understanding of experiences beyond my own."

Do you bill directly to any other insurance? If so, which ones? / Facturez-vous directement à d'autres assurances? Si oui, lesquelles?: This is a difficult question to answer in that who is covered depends on a) which professionals a given insurance provider has selected and b) how the insurance program is structured. When an insurer has covered Registered Marriage and Family Therapists and/or Registered Psychotherapists, some expect to be billed directly (therapist to insurer) and others expect for the client to pay out of pocket and then submit receipts to the insurer for reimbursement. That being said it's important for students to verify and understand how their insurance works. / C'est une question difficile à répondre, qui est couvert dépend de a) quel professionnels un fournisseur d'assurance ai choisi et b) comment le programme d'assurance est structuré. Quand un assureur couvre les Thérapeutes de Mariage et famille autorisé ou bien les Psychothérapeute autorisé certain peuvent s'attendre à être facturé directement (thérapeute à assureur) et d'autre peuvent s'attendre à payer de leur poche et ensuite soumettre leur facture à l'assurance pour un remboursement. Ceci étant dit, il est important que les étudiants vérifie leurs assurance et comprennent comment ça fonctionne.
