

A. VANILLA

1. Heavy kissing/heavy makeout: Oh, you'd think they were making up for lost time the way they make out

2. Dry humping/clothed sex: Bruh, you're lucky if they get totally naked half the time

3. First time: "I want this. I want you." "Yeah okay, you've got me~" [that is to say I've got a scene in mind]

4. Oral sex: Very popular choice, in both directions

5. Sex: Wow, how specific. That's only what the whole meme is about. (I know what's being implied, but I don't think it deserves an answer.)

6. Doggy style: Not necessarily their favorite, but there's something primal about it

7. Rimming: Domon was skeptical about the idea until it was done to him. Now he's a big fan.

8. With toys: As I've said, that's one of the fun things about sleeping with a trans guy, being able to choose the dick you want

9. Multiple partners: Yeah right

10. Trying a new position: Sure, why not

11. Penetrative anal sex: See "with toys". It's not very common the other way around though; Chibodee was crestfallen to discover that anal alone doesn't do much for him (though double penetration is a different story)

12. Phone/video sex: Oh, they try this when they're long distance. "Try" is the operative word here. Phone works out better than video.

13. Masturbation: A staple when they're long-distance, and invaluable to watch when they're learning what works on each other

14. Face-sitting: Not exactly their preferred oral configuration, as much fun as it might be to pun on it also being called "queening"

15. Mutual masturbation: Okay, is this separate-but-together, or jerking each other off? Because the former I covered in 13, and the latter is how their quickies generally go

B. ROMANTIC

- 1. Extensive talking during foreplay and sex: Domon wasn't really much of a talker in the bedroom until he realized just how well Chibodee responds to praise
- 2. Body worship: Dammit, Domon is hot and he deserves to know it. (Chibodee actually responds better to being on the receiving end of that, so naturally Domon only deploys it on special occasions and/or to overload him.)
- 3. Surprise visit at job/school/etc: Oh, you know Domon got tackled the first time he showed up to a boxing match (or, well, the first time with good intentions)
- 4. Romantic lighting/set up by one partner: There is really something dazzling about Domon in the sunrise
- 5. Overly romantic gesture that turns other partner on way too much: Chibodee pulls some strings and sneaks off to show up at Domon's door for his birthday. Domon shows his appreciation.
- 6. With lovey-dovey music playing: Your mileage may vary on how lovey-dovey the music itself is, but the sentiment behind Chibodee making a mix tape could turn into something
- 7. Taking a trip the other has always wanted to: Just one trip? Bruh, they're traveling while they can
- 8. Massage: This could play into the body worship, you know, paying special attention to those muscles
- 9. First "I love you": Chibodee has picked up enough Japanese that he is stunned when Domon rasps "Aishiteru" against his skin
- 10. Tantric sex: Honestly I could see Domon being curious about this, not that they really need another layer of intensity to their sex life
- 11. Slow, patient foreplay/sex: Between Domon being less experienced, and Chibodee being weird about vulnerability, this is the order of the day when they're first starting out especially. (As they start exploring more, "patient" can become "painstaking" as they see how long they can make it last.)
- 12. Heavy eye contact: I mean, I think eye contact is sort of weird and intense for Domon in general, but then their sex life is weird and intense, so who's to say.

13. Spooning position: This is less common for the sex and more for the post-coital cuddle

14. Hands focus/holding hands: Now this is a good chunk of how they communicate, those fists open to calloused knuckles and nimble fingers

15. Prompter's choice

C. GOOFY

1. Being dared to have sex by someone else: "Yeah, you wish we'd give you a show"

2. Laughing: Whether it's Chibodee's absurd innuendos or Domon being hilariously blunt, sometimes dirty talk gets silly

3. With food: Honestly, the way they go at it, they need to refuel between rounds

4. In costume: They had such nice fancy suits for George's wedding. Don't ask how torn up they got.

5. Comical roleplay: This is just how roleplay would go at first in general

6. Fumbling, tickly, giggly sex: Probably a reunion or other celebration, so they're already giddy and eager, and maybe then something little sets them off, a clumsy move or a stupid song on the radio

7. Attempting to go down on them under the kitchen table: I feel like this would end with a flipped table and a head injury

8. Giving a failed striptease/lap dance: Chibodee would start to do this as a joke... and it fails even as a joke because Domon's just so confused by it being out of character

9. Watching porn together and making fun of the actors/scenes: It didn't start out together; it started with Domon watching for research purposes, and got Chibodee's attention with "now that can't be right—!"

10. Distracting the other with sex: I mean, this is kind of what Chibodee tried to do their first time, keep Domon distracted enough to not question how one-sided it was. That was of course met with a resounding "oh no you don't"

11. Obscene or ridiculous dirty talk in public: Okay so there was maybe an incident where Domon had a volume control problem

12. Discovering a partner writes smutty fanfiction and reads it together/to each other:

With all due respect, what?

13. Sexting gone wrong: The sexting itself was fine, Domon just didn't hide it fast enough

14. Birthday surprise!: See B5. Overly romantic gesture that turns the other on way too much

15. Prompter's choice

D. HARDCORE

1. Rough sex: Yes.

2. Comeplay: Not their thing deliberately

3. Serious/intense roleplay: Assuming they got into it, it would have to be more about storylines/situations than characters; Domon would struggle to get into character

4. Pegging/strapons: This is supposed to be hardcore? That's just a Tuesday night

5. Sloppy, dirty sex: And that's just any night after they've been separated for a while

6. Jackhammering: Just watch for someone to be walking funny the next day

7. Breathplay: Hmm, no

8. Double penetration: Could certainly play into their overstimulation games. (Totally not something that's on Chibodee's secret wish list.)

9. Spanking (heavy): As luscious as Domon's ass is, I'm not sure that's really in the rotation. Grabbing, biting, digging nails in, sure, but spanking not so much.

10. Fisting: Nah

11. Object penetration: They've got enough toys at their disposal that they don't need to resort to things that aren't designed to go up there

12. Cock/vagina worship: We love both natal dicks and t-dicks here

13. Squirting: Ooh, this term is just a little too gendered to comfortably talk about. But they're actually on a mission to see if this is real – and ejaculation might bring a different level of gender euphoria

14. Face-fucking: Nah, at least not on purpose; smothering isn't sexy

15. Prompter's choice

E. KINKY

1. Painplay: Things like sensation play and overstimulation and edging can creep into this territory, you know, playing with the pleasure/pain dichotomy, but not so much deliberate pain for its own sake

2. Fetish fulfillment: Domon wanted to do it outside, which turned into a ritual of going on sexy hikes

3. Exhibitionism: This would only ever be an accident, and it only happened once, okay?

4. Sensory deprivation: That headband has been used as a blindfold more than once. Otherwise they're more the type to indulge in the opposite end of sensory play

5. Extreme bondage: Eh. Some bondage is definitely in the cards (Domon turns out to be a bit of a rope bunny - it feels good to not have to hold back, as he puts it), but ... define "extreme"

6. Dom/sub dynamic: There's a certain equality implied in rivalry that means they don't fall into power-imbalance dynamics for too long. Which isn't to say they don't dabble, only that they're not rigid about it. (That's more Argo and Nastasha's territory.) When they do, they switch depending on the kink, and rather than things like Master/slave or Daddy/little, their dynamic might be best described as Coach/trainee.

7. Play party: Domon gets weird about regular parties, you think he'd be down with a sex party?

8. Knifeplay: If Domon could ever be talked into roleplay, it might come with shades of this, you know, misuse of swords to create a 'dangerous' setting

9. Humiliation: Hard limit for Chibodee tbh. I'm gonna say he's prepared to safeword if competitive 'trash talk' ever accidentally runs into this! [This actually in retrospect refers more to degradation]

10. Orgasm denial: Not always patient enough for that, but that's part of their "tests of endurance" for sure

11. Gags: I don't actually think that would quiet them down much!

12. Begging: Stubborn as they both are, the aforementioned "tests of endurance" can eventually wind up here - but only properly negotiated, because this is very vulnerable territory

13. Aftercare: Forehead touch/leaning on each other while they come down from the high y/y? After that, they communicate better once they've eaten something (why yes there is a snack and water stash in the bedside table)

14. Safeword use: Their system just seemed intuitive; martial arts already have a 'stop/surrender' concept built in, so it made sense to translate that to sex

15. Prompter's choice of kink: Chibodee is going to absolutely die of embarrassment when Domon discovers his piss kink

F. SITUATIONAL

1. In an elevator/otherwise enclosed space: Does a cockpit count?

2. At workplace/school: There are times when they just can't wait to get home after a match, so Chibodee's dressing room does just fine

3. Knowing someone else can hear: They're so close, damnit, they can't stop now!

4. At a movie theater: Sex? No. Hickies? Absolutely.

5. In a restaurant: Wh— How??

6. Against a wall: Sometimes you only have a few minutes and a bed is too far away

7. In a car: A classic rite of passage they didn't get to experience as teenagers

8. On public transport: Making out in the back of a cab is the most I can picture here, and even that might be at odds with the whole "being public figures" thing

9. In a shower: I'm sorry, this is post-spar canoodling in an empty locker room

10. Outdoors: Domon absolutely has thought about doing it underneath a waterfall in the Guyana Highlands - shut up, it's romantic

11. In front of/by a mirror: Hm. Could this be folded into body worship, I wonder.

12. On a specific holiday: I wanted to suggest something about Christmas' romantic reputation in Japan, but something something making their own fireworks on the Fourth of July

13. At a partner's parents' house: Oh lord, only if they were staying with Dr Kasshu for a while for whatever reason, and it would be a comedy of errors trying to hold out until he's gone

14. In a bathtub: Not sure I see this. Chibodee isn't really a bath kind of guy, and I don't think Japanese-style baths would really allow for sex?

15. Prompter's choice of location
