Language is indispensable to humans. It helps us share our thoughts, express our emotions, and understand one another. Without language, we wouldn't be able to build relationships or learn from others. Over time, languages have gradually developed, changing in sounds, grammar, and vocabulary. That's why the way people speak today is often very different from how their grandparents spoke.

Around the world, there are thousands of languages. Some are spoken by millions of people, while others are used by only a small group. Sadly, many of these smaller languages are disappearing. When a language dies, we also lose part of a culture and history. That's why many specialists are working hard to protect endangered languages before they are lost forever.

Not all languages are spoken with voices. Sign languages use hand movements and facial expressions to share meaning. They are used by people who are deaf or hard of hearing and are just as rich and meaningful as spoken ones.

Learning another language can also help you personally. It can boost your self-confidence, strengthen your brain and help you understand different cultures. In today's global world, speaking more than one language can help you open doors in both life and work.

Question 31. According to the passage, the word "boost" is CLOSEST in meaning to _____.

- A. worsen
- B. lessen
- C. reduce
- D. improve

Question 32. What is the main idea of the passage?

- A. Sign languages are more useful than spoken languages.
- B. Only major languages help people in daily situations.
- C. Language connects people and changes across history.
- D. Language is used only for speaking with other people.

Question 33. According to the passage, the word "indispensable" is OPPOSITE in meaning to _____.

- A. uncommon
- B. unimportant

C. unavailable

D. unusual

Question 34. Which of the following is TRUE according to the passage?

B. The way people speak today is often similar to how their grandparents spoke.

C. The way people speak today is often like how their grandparents spoke.

D. The way people speak today often differs from how their grandparents spoke.

Question 35. Why do a lot of experts want to protect small languages according to the passage?

A. Because they help people travel easily to new places.

B. Because their disappearance means losing culture and history.

C. Because their speakers often forget how to use them.

D. Because they are spoken in places with no written signs.

Question 36. What does the passage say about sign languages?

A. They are only used in small schools abroad.

B. They are easier to understand than grammar.

C. They use hands and faces to show meaning.

D. They cannot express feelings in daily life.

Son Đoòng Cave is located in the limestone mountains of the UNESCO-listed Phong Nha - Kẻ Bàng National Park. It was first discovered in 1991 by a local man and became internationally famous in 2009 when a group of scientists from British Cave Research Association explored it.

Son Đoòng Cave was created from 2 to 5 million years ago while a river flowed through the limestone mountain area. The water eroded the limestone and created long underground tunnels. The cave is over 200 m high, 200 m wide and at least 9 km long. Son Đoòng Cave consists of two entrances, which is unique among other explored caves in Phong Nha - Kẻ Bàng National Park. Having explored the cave, the scientists were surprised at the spectacular scenery of numerous columns of more than 70 meters high. Son Đoòng Cave is the largest cave passage in the world. International explorers were amazed to see that this fascinating cave system has its very own rainforests. Deep inside the cave exists a tropical jungle named "Garden of Eden" by the explorers. This is where unique species of plants and trees can be found. Also, the cave has a 2.5-kilometer underground river. Not far from the "Garden of Eden" lies an enormous "pearl collection" consisting of thousands of small rare limestone cave pearls in dried ponds, making it an incredible feature of the cave.

Son Đoòng Cave was opened to the public in 2013. A local adventure tour company Oxalis has been taking a limited number of tourists per year on four-day expeditions into Son Đoòng Cave since then.

Question 29. What is the main idea of the passage?
