Subject Line: How I became the Quarter Billion Dollar Man...

You're probably wondering...

Who is this guy?

And...

How the hell does he generate millions of dollars off copywriting?

When, on the other hand, I find myself staring at the screen and not a single word comes out

Well, I didn't just take a magic pill one day and become a copywriting whiz...

In fact, 10 years ago, I didn't know what copywriting was...

Until one day, I quit my job as a house painter, earning only $12 an hour...

Because I just wanted something more in life...

Then I decided to launch my software company

Yeah, it was scary, but at the same time, it was exciting

I was building my website...

Setting up my Google business page...

Researching prospects...

But when it came down to writing copy, I would get stuck

For some reason, my brain just couldn't come up with anything creative to write...

There was one key fear that was stopping me from easily being able to write effective copy

Once you are able to let go of this fear...

You will find yourself able to write more copy that will actually create fantastic results

It is important that you kill this fear now!

Because it is stopping you from making 6, 7, even 8 figures...

luckily I show you how I destroyed this fear out of my life...

And how to destroy it out of your life too

Click here to direct you to a video where I show the best way to overcome this fear.

Always the best,

Jason fladlien

Subject line: How to always know what to write about...

You get all excited to launch a new product...

You're done all the research you need to start writing...

But once you sit down at your desk...

boom!

You have no idea what to write about...

You question every word that you write...

Wondering if it is going to actually get people to buy your product...

And the best way to get rid of what I call 'writers block'...

Is Speed

let go of all the doubts in your head and just write pieces of copy as fast as you can...

Then worry about refining your copy after you're finished...

And I guarantee you will produce masterclass landing/sales pages, emails, home pages etc...

All in less than 30 minutes...

Because now your mind is no longer filled with doubts that are stopping you from actually writing good and creative copy

Always the best,

Jason fladlien

Subject line: stop buying freelancing courses...

Yes, you heard me...

It doesn't matter how good the teacher is...

It doesn't even matter if they give you the best persuasive tools you need to sell...

If you aren't able to develop the mindset of a billionaire...

You will never make it

But here's the good news...

I happen to secretly teach my students both...

The skills you need to...

- land 5,6 figure deals
- Master the invaluable skill of selling with words
- And triple your revenue

And also teach you how to develop the winners mindset you need to succeed massively as a marketer

If you're ready to become the person who will not quit until they are rich...

And finally make this work...

Do what 10,000s of my other students have done...

And join my course to start making real money today

Subject: struggling copywriters will be destroyed...

If you're reading this you probably quit your job...

Dropped out of school or college...

Or you're still working at your job and are doing copy as a side hustle...

No matter what situation you are in...

You became interested in copywriting because you don't want to make 50-100k working your butt off at a normal 9-5...

Instead you wanted to make so much money to the point where you didn't know what to do with it

But yet most of you are making less than 50, 40 even less than 30 grand...

Some of you haven't even started yet...

Who knows how much longer you will be able to become rich off copywriting with the addition of AI...

Soon this opportunity of generating wealth will be gone...

There is no better time than now to become rich...
