UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT & POLITICS

Topic: Changes in Ideology

Before you get started...

Even though a person gains their political socialization during the formative years of their lives, the events that take place during their lives lead to changes in how they see the world. Wars, economic conditions, and other key national and global events impact how a person's beliefs change over time.

At the end you should know ...

How do generational and life cycle events influence political attitudes and political socialization.

How are each of the generations in the table below different from one another?

The generations defined

*No chronological endpoint has been set for this group. For this analysis, Generation Z is defined as those ages 7 to 22 in 2019.
