

Hi! My name is Yumé . My full name is Sirikarn karntanarhat and I am ten years old .I learn at Lertlah school kanchanapisek road. I am in fifth grade , I really like English,science and art. But my favorite is English because it really helps me to improve my writing,speaking and reading skills.

I actually have a lot of hobbies. One of them is drawing. I love drawing! especially drawing anime characters for example Monkey D. Luffy (from One piece). My other hobbies are quite simple like watching youtube or listening to music. I like listening to electronic pop types of songs. So about my family, I have one brother, he is six years old. Both my mom and my father have their own restaurant .I've been there before , it's really good!

Sometimes I play video games like Roblox or Minecraft but mostly, I play Roblox ( Is an app that allows people to play a lot of games, create games,and chat with others online.) I usually play survival games .

I have 2 pets, they are both hamsters.One of them is gray and the other one is white.I named the gray one khai-mook and I named the other one moji. The reason I named it moji is because it's really chubby and it has white fur like a moji !

When I grow up I want to be a doctor , so I will study hard to become one . I know it's hard ,but I will try my best to make my dream come true.The reason I wanted to be one at first was because of my great grandmother's loss .Everyone was really sad, especially my mom. My great grandmother was dying of lung cancer and my mom knew there was no way she was gonna recover , the only thing she could do was watch and cry .I thought to myself “ if only there was a doctor with us ...” then i started to study harder for the good results and that was the reason i wanted to to be a doctor thank you.

My name is Iris. I'm twelve years old. I'm having the best summer of my life because my parents took me to the Amazon forest with my little brother, Jack.

"We're going to camp in Amazon for a week and it's going to be so great", I told Jack.

"Yes, we can pick berries and play with cute animals", Jack replied happily.

We got packed and left the house. Our parents drove the car and after two hours, we finally reached our camping spot. Jack was a little disappointed when he learned that there is no internet but otherwise he was happy.

At about 6 pm, our dad told us to collect some wood for the fire. I replied, "Sure dad! It won't take long." Then Jack and I ran to collect some wood when the trees got thicker.

Jack said, "Sis, what's that animal?"

I looked where he was pointing, and to my surprise, I saw a gleaming silver lynx. "It seems to be made out of gas," I told Jack. We were very curious so we decided to follow the lynx. It led us to a tree and vaporized into nothing.

"I think the tree's glowing," I told Jack.

But he simply shook his head and said, "It looks normal to me."

"Look at that branch, it's literally glowing silver!"

To my surprise, he said, "It's not glowing. You're pulling my leg."

(to try to persuade someone to believe something that is not true, as a joke)

My curiosity overpowered my fear, and I touched the tree. A silver door appeared! Mesmerized by its magic, I touched the lock and it pulled me inside. The last thing I saw was Jack screaming my name, then my vision turned black.

When I woke up I was on a bed. A girl was sitting on my bedside doing some magic on my wounds while a baby deer was sleeping peacefully on her lap.

She asked, "Are you feeling any better?"

I replied, "Yes, thank you very much, but who are you?"

She smiled warmly and said, “My name is Artemis, goddess of the moon and the wild.”

I was so shocked, but I continued, “What was that silver door? And why did Jack not see it?”

Artemis smiled warmly and said, “Boys are not allowed on my island.”

I decided it was best to introduce myself, “Hi, I’m Iris.”

Artemis smiled and said, “Your name is like my best friend the rainbow goddess, Iris” “Would you like a tour, Iris?” she added.

I replied “Yes, thank you so much, but when can I return to my world?”

She smiled and said, “You can either return to your world or stay with me immortal, on this island. It is very rare for a girl to come across this island Iris, but first let me take you on a tour.”

Artemis’s island was breathtakingly beautiful, most of the island are forests but there are some marble temples. She introduced me to some Nymphs, Centaurs (half human half horse), Satyrs (half goat half human) and storm spirits.

Artemis explained, “On this island there are both kind animals and dangerous monsters from the Underworld, so you will need a weapon.” She took me to a shelf and gave me a bow and some arrows. The bow fitted me perfectly.

“Thank you, goddess Artemis. Your island is really amazing.”

Suddenly, there was a roar in the forest, then a chimera attacked me. Artemis shouted, “Shoot it! It’s dangerous!” I jumped on the chimera’s back and aimed an arrow at its neck. It roared angrily and tried to scratch my neck. I quickly shot my arrow, and with my luck, it vaporised into nothing.

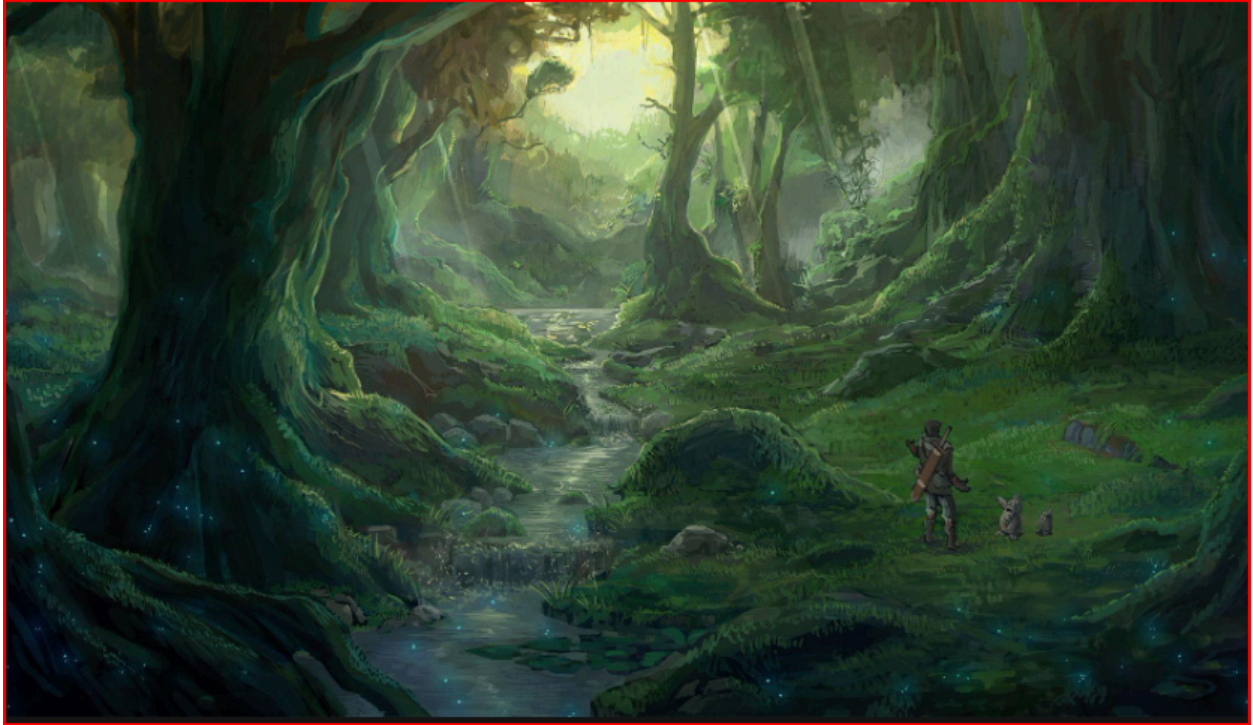

Artemis complimented me on shooting the chimera and said sternly, “Iris, that’s one of the monsters that had caused a lot of damage on my island. Since you’re pretty good, will you accept to be a hunter and help me get rid of monsters?”

I happily replied, “Yes, I will help you with the monsters and I won’t let you down.” Artemis smiled.

That evening, I helped her prepare dinner and we ate together as friends. Artemis was a nice goddess and I really enjoyed talking with her. Then suddenly, I remembered that Jack was out there in the forest, alone. I begged Artemis to keep him safe.

23/4+11/5/2024 Task: Continue the story. Write what happens next.

I was worried sick about Jack. But Artemis assured that he was ok. Back in the forest, Jack was still wandering on his own. Suddenly there was a loud THUD of what sounded like footsteps. Jack looked left, right, under, and even upwards but there was no sign of anything!

Then he shouted, “ Iris. IRIS. Where are you?!” But there was no answer. He was devastated. He turned back and saw a tall shadow behind him. The monster stood there growling at him. “Oh somebody please, help me!” Jack screamed and then Artemis and Iris appeared out of nowhere and swiftly took out the monster by shooting arrows at it.

“Hey, thought you made sure that he was fine?!” Iris skeptically asked. “Ugh what a horrible trip,” Iris mumbled under her breath.

“Oh, I'm so sorry for making this trip horrible my dear, but you know.. The future is unpredictable”

WHAT? Embarrassed, “ I didn't say anything?!” Iris told the goddess.

In the forest, Jack, who was confused at that moment said, “IRIS, you came to save me! Oh.. and who is this?” Jack gasped. But Iris had already vanished out to the thin air before Jack got his answer.

Iris and Artemis got back to the island as fast as they could. “How did you just do that?” Iris shockingly turned to Artemis.

“Oh little girl... sometimes you just have to keep something a secret,” Artemis said.

Days passed and Iris had been doubting about why Artemis doesn't like boys or men that much. So she went to ask Artemis about it but she seemed a little bit sad when Iris asked her about it. So Iris stopped asking, but Iris didn't give up searching for some evidence.

“Maybe the men did something to her island,” Iris thought.

Later that night Iris couldn't sleep, she was thinking about if Jack will still be alive till tomorrow, so she planned to look out for Jack tomorrow .

Next morning, Iris immediately went to call Artemis to look out for Jack. They both teleported to where Jack was. He was really struggling to survive, there was no food or water.

Iris ran to Jack. “I WAS SO WORRIED ABOUT YOU!!!!” Iris cried.

“I-I-ir-iris?” Jack stuttered. “IRIS, I was searching for you for three whole days now. Where have you been?!”

“Don’t worry Jack. I am safe with Artemis.”

Suddenly a monster appeared in front of Artemis. So Iris took out the monster. “I miss mom” Jack sobbed, Iris then went to Artemis and asked Artemis about her parents. Iris actually wanted to go back to her parents too, Artemis told her that their parents were in the north. “Then that means we can get back to our parents right?” Jack said “Yes” Artemis said “But Iris I want to stay with you forever my dear” she said quietly “sorry but i can’t. I miss my parents Artemis and i love them, everyone does” says Iris. Then Artemis teleported back to her island with Iris, she was really sad that day later that day Iris was thinking of escaping out but she knew that it was a bad idea so she changed her mind she thought of just confronting her. In the morning Iris went to artemis and told her that she really wanted to go home, so artemis let her go but before that she wanted to tell Iris about something. She told that “a long time ago some hunters found her island and ended up destroying it with forbidden dark magic”, so she swore not to let any single other man or boys on her island ever again

Later that day Iris and Jack part ways with artemis. Iris was very thankful for all the things Artemis did for her, they said their goodbyes
