

Cassandra "DeeDee" Shields – Board Member, The Panache Project, Inc.

Cassandra Shields, affectionately known as “DeeDee,” is a dedicated professional with a strong background in Accounting, Finance, and Treasury management. She has held leadership roles across several Fortune 500 companies and currently serves as a Travel and Expense Supervisor for an organization committed to serving veterans across various government sectors.

At her core, DeeDee is a devoted servant of the Lord. Her life is deeply rooted in faith, and she is committed to giving her time, energy, and heart in service to her church, family, and community. She considers her role on the Board of Directors for The Panache Project, Inc. one of the greatest honors of her life. For DeeDee, this opportunity represents the culmination of her lifelong calling—to help others grow with intentionality, excellence, compassion, and accountability.

In addition to her professional and board service, DeeDee has a rich history in music ministry. She has toured the country as part of a gospel ensemble, spreading messages of hope and faith through song. A passionate advocate for youth and young adults, she inspires them to believe that they can become everything God has called them to be.

DeeDee is also actively involved in church ministry, having served on numerous committees and auxiliaries. She currently teaches Sunday School to children in grades 1 through 3, continuing her mission to plant seeds of faith and encouragement in the next generation.

Her guiding prayer is simple yet powerful: “Lord, I’ll go, I’ll do it!”
