Overview I — General Information

Type of Subject: Deity

Sub-type: Divine Paradise Deity

Subject Discriminator: #6

Assigned Identifier: "Highest All-Mighty"

Overview II — Physical Appearance

The entity shown is known as Xaro, God of Ascension. Xaro is a spatial celestial that appears to be the embodiment of space; furthermore, studies have shown that just being around Xaro's presence emits paranoia and illness, this is due to Xaro's ability to ascend endlessly in an instant, and thus, this is a side effect of just being around Xaro.

Overview III — Behavior and Character

Xaro has shown to be more honest and carefree unlike other beings in the Divine Paradise; however, due to its honesty, Xaro became disliked due to how ruthless its opinions are. Xaro has shown many combat skills, and was one of the more disciplined students of Mael, God of Creativity. Moreover, Xaro has also shown signs of will power and determination to surpass Mael.

Trivia

Fun facts about "Xaro" include;

- Xaro has challenged both Gabriel, God of Wisdom, and Mael to a friendly spar; Xaro was defeated.
- Xaro continues Mael's legacy and trains Seraphims in its free-time.
- Xaro does not identify with either gender.
- Xaro's origins are unknown.
- Xaro has shown lots of respect for Vulcan, God of Combat, despite its betrayal on Astro, this is due to Xaro admiring Vulcan's ability to ruthlessly defeat severely powerful gods with nothing but a sword.

- Xaro is one of the four Primordials which created the Bright-Dark Fountain, along with Arthur, God of Pain, Thanatos, God of Death, and Elatha, God of Color.
- Xaro views Apollo, God of Energy, as its child. This is due to Xaro rescuing Apollo from getting abducted into the umbral realm of Hell, but the same cannot be said for Malthael, God of Brutality.
