

Zoom Series!

Labor 101: Socialism and the Labor Movement

We are witnessing a new moment in labor with a wave of strikes. In the East Bay, Oakland teachers, UC grad students, and workers in a drywall factory. Across the U.S., auto workers, Amazon workers, Starbucks workers...

What's the relationship between socialists, unions, and the working class?

East Bay DSA's Labor Committee is offering a four-session weekly series starting Thursday, April 10th at 6 PM. The 4th session will be on May 1st.

This series will be on Zoom only! All California DSA members and friends are welcome.

Topics include:

- the importance of labor for the socialist project
- what unions are and do
- labor history
- labor's challenges under Trump
- ways to join and support the labor movement

Questions?

daviddeleeuw1954@gmail.com

If you are new to socialism and/or looking to learn more about unions and the labor movement, this is for you!

