1) Inasakan Beach

Image by dr0nerentalph

Inasakan Beach, which used to be called Mina de Oro Beach, is a quiet beach with fine white sand and clear water. The Spanish phrase "Mina de Oro" can also mean "goldmine" or "source of wealth or profit." If you go to this beach, you will really discover a goldmine.

Most people believe that Inasakan Beach is like Boracay. It is one of the most popular tourist attractions in San Jose, Occidental Mindoro, and is located in Barangay Inasakan on Ilin Island. Apart from the breathtaking view, the beach's best feature has always been its serene and peaceful atmosphere.

Locals like the beach, and if you ask where Inasakan Beach is, they will show you the way to this paradise. It is home to many different kinds of sea life. You can be sure that you and your family or loved ones will have a worry- and stress-free vacation here.

How to get there?

Take a tricycle from San Jose Airport to Barangay Pag-asa. If you are looking for a place to stay in Barangay Pag-asa nearest to the destination, you may consider Beachfront Bed & Breakfast. Take a boat from there to Barangay Inasakan. The travel time will be at least an hour and a half.

2)White Island

Image by dr0nerentalph

The second on our list is the White Island.

White Island is one of the tourist attractions of Occidental Mindoro. Because it is thought to have appeared decades ago, the island is also known locally as Manadi Island, which translates to "Sudden Appearance." It is a tiny island that is ideal for swimming, snorkeling, scuba diving, fishing, and other water sports.

Turtles use certain areas of the shore as breeding grounds and bury their eggs there. The island may be traversed on foot in a short amount of time. You must carry your own food because the island lacks a store or electricity.

How to get there?

Take a tricycle from San Jose Airport to Barangay Pag-asa. If you are looking for a place to stay in Barangay Pag-asa nearest to the destination, you may consider Beachfront Bed & Breakfast. From there, take a boat to White Island. It will take at least 15 minutes to get there.

3) Grace Island

Image by r0nerentalph

Perhaps the nicest island resort in Occidental Mindoro is Grace Island Resort. It has a clean beach with white sand and clear water, but its floating cottages are what most people come to see. This private paradise is great for families or couples.

You may easily jump into the ocean and swim from the balcony of your floating cottage. When you're done, you can go back to your cottage. Jetski, a zipline, and miniature banana boats are also available.

You can also go to their sanctuary for birds and marine life. If you see more of the island, you'll want to stay longer for sure. Their staff is known to be very helpful, so it's easy to get in touch with them.

How to get there?

Take a trip for 10 minutes from San Jose Airport to the Grace Island booking office.

You need to confirm your reservation at the desk where the boat is waiting, and then take their boat to the island.

4) Apo Reef

Image by Wikipedia

Apo Reef has some of the best places to dive in the world. It is thought to be the second-largest reef system that is all connected in the world, after the Great Barrier Reef. It goes on for more than 34 kilometers without stopping.

These coral reefs are home to a huge variety of sea life. There are manta rays, sharks, turtles, jellyfish, and a lot of other animals in this group. Whales also come by here every once in a while. Just looking at the colorful corals will make your trip here something you'll remember for the rest of your life.

Apo Reef is a protected sanctuary because of how beautiful and rich it is. If ecotourism is done right, it should be able to last for generations to come. It is now one of the most popular places for tourists to visit in Sablayan, Occidental Mindoro.

How to go there?

Take a tricycle from the San Jose Airport to the bus station. Take a bus that goes to Sablayan. To find out which boat will transport you to Apo Island from Sablayan, speak with the Sablayan Etourism Office, your contact boatman, or a tour operator.

5) Ragara Beach Resort

Image by Tripadvisor

The Ragara beach resort in the small town of Calintaan, Occidental Mindoro, is a real gem. It is one of the province's most popular resorts. One traveler said that it felt like Boracay, but it wasn't as busy. It has a beautiful view of the sunset and is quiet. This is the place to go if you want to get away from the noise of the city.

Regara Beach is a calmer, less crowded beach. It is a long stretch of beach with fine sand and a lot of palm trees. On the beach, there is a private resort called Ragara Beach Resort. It is a simple place to stay that serves good food and has good rooms. This beach is a simple paradise where people can use free huts, beach beds, and hammocks. A great place to take a break and enjoy the peace and quiet.

How to get there?

From San Jose Airport, you can find a bus to go to Ragara Beach Resort and it may take 50 mins to an hour for 45.2 km ride.

6) Mamburao Beach

Image by Iraya Digital Creation

Mamburao Beach is one of the places in Occidental Mindoro that gets the most tourists. It is known for its long, fine-sand beach, clear water, and lots of palm trees along the coast. Mamburao Beach has a lot of beach resorts with great places to stay and great amenities. It's a great place to go with a group of friends because you can swim, dive, and play beach volleyball.

Hundreds to thousands of people come to its long stretch of sandy beach on weekends and holidays.

You can relax on the beach or swim in the blue water. If you want to stay overnight, there are many resorts and places to stay along the beach.

How to get there?

From San Jose Airport, you can take a bus and it will take approximately 2 hrs and 50 mins in driving to Mamburao Beach Resort.

7) Calawagan Mountain Resort

Image by Tribu Occidental Mindoro

Calawagan Mountain Resort is a public resort run by the Local Government. It is on a forested mountain in Occidental Mindoro. Families, groups of friends, and teens from the area go here to get away quickly, especially in the summer when the water is naturally cool and refreshing.

The swimming pools get most of their fresh water from the Canawagan River, which is a very clean river. There are picnic areas and grills at the resort. You can swim in the river or look at the rock formations after crossing the hanging bridge. The Calawagan River received a national award from the DILG for being the country's cleanest body of water.

This is the best place to go if you want to climb a mountain, cross a river, or swim under a waterfall. It is also a great place to unwind and enjoy nature. From Mamburao, which is the capital of Occidental Mindoro, it takes an hour to get to the resort.

How to get there?

From San Jose Airport, it is 3 hrs and 30 mins 181 km ride to the resort via Mindoro West Coastal Rd

8)Mt. Iglit-Baco

Image from Wikipedia

The Mount Iglit-Baco National Park is one of the most popular tourist destinations in Occidental Mindoro. It is a protected area that is in the middle of Mindoro and is surrounded by Mount Iglit and Mount Baco. The park is where the Philippines' only native animal, the Tamaraw, lives. The creation of this park was motivated by the tamaraw's status as one of the most endangered species in the world. If you like to climb mountains, this is a great place for you to go. It would be enough to tour for two days and one night. One would see Tamaraw Buffalos eating, and the mountains would have beautiful sunrises and sunsets.

If you like to climb mountains, this would be a great trip for you. It has 8 major river systems, beautiful landscapes, and ridges that are so steep that hiking them would take two days and one night.

Mount Iglit-Baco National Park is in the middle of the province of Mindoro and covers a large area. It is in Sablayan, which is in Occidental Mindoro. You should first call the Tourism Office of Sablayan and ask them to give you a tour guide and set up your trip.

How to get there?

When you get to San Jose Airport, hire a tricycle to take you to the Tamaraw Conservation Program Office (TCP) to get a permit to enter the Mts. Iglit-Baco National Park (MIBNP). The tricycle will cost you about 20php, while the Trekking Fee is 250php and the DENR Environmental Fee is an additional 30php.

9) Onoda Trails and Caves

Image from Travel to the Philippines

One of the most popular places to visit in Lubang Occidental Mindoro is the Onoda Trail and Caves. During World War II, Lt. Hiroo Onoda and his troops used it as a place to hide and a way to get away. The eight-kilometer trail passes through four caves. Along the way, there are also streams, trees that are a hundred years old, and wild animals.

You might want to go to the Onoda Trails and Caves if you've heard about a Japanese soldier who wouldn't give up even after World War II was over. It shows where Lt. Hiroo Onoda and his troops hid and how they got away.

The trail goes through four caves and is about eight kilometers long. As you move through these, you'll see trees that are hundreds of years old, streams that are clear as glass, and different kinds of wild animals. If you follow the trail, you'll feel like you're living the exciting life of a soldier.

How to get there?

It will take 8 hr 58 min (251.5 km) via Mindoro West Coastal Road from San Jose Airport Occidental Mindoro.

10) Presing Park

Image from Mindoro AdvenTours

Also called Parola Park, which was named for the wife of former Mayor Loreto Urieta while he was in office. In 1861, a historic watchtower and cannon were built in this Mountain Park to protect against Muslim pirates and other people who used to raid the area. Guards and watchers were stationed there around the clock to signal or warn people to hide while cannon fires were used to protect the town. There was still a lighthouse and an old cannon there today. The park has the best view of the sunset in town.

One of the locations in Occidental Mindoro where people go to learn about the history is Presing Park. The brave Sablayanos, who lived here in the 1700s, fought the Moro pirates on one of these hills. Here, you'll find a light beacon and a canon that is over 100 years old. Since it's an open hill, it's a good place to watch the sunset.

Besides seeing the sights, you can rappel, climb walls, zip-line, and do many other things here.

How to get there?

It will take about 3 hrs (153 km) via Mindoro West Coastal Road from San Jose Airport Occidental Mindoro.
