

DECLARATION OF ORIGINALITY

Authors must accept and sign this Declaration of Originality, which must be uploaded in the "Declaration of Originality" along with the main document on the platform.

Declaration of Originality

Using this letter, I certify that this article that I (we) am (we are) presenting for possible publication in the Revista Chilena de Enfermería de la Universidad de Chile, I (we are), the original author(s) and its contents are the product of my (our) direct intellectual contribution.

All information and references to materials already published are duly identified with their respective credit and included in the bibliographic references, and in the cases that require it, the proper authorizations of those who hold the respective rights are available. Furthermore, it is stated that any publicly available research data will be duly cited in your reference list.

Likewise, regarding the use of technologies assisted by artificial intelligence (AI) (such as large language models, chatbots, and image creators, among others) in the production of the submitted document, I (we) declare:

Therefore, I/we declare that all materials presented are entirely free of copyright and, therefore, I/we are responsible for any claim related to intellectual property rights, exonerating the Universidad Chile from liability.

Likewise, I/we declare this article unpublished, and I/we have not submitted it to another serial publication for its evaluation and subsequent publication.

If it is derived from a thesis, it must be declared on the main page, and the corresponding option must be marked as:

- Undergraduate/bachelor's thesis/professional degree.                       Training activity.
 Master's Thesis.                                       Doctoral Thesis.                       Not derived from Thesis.

In addition, our tutor/teacher/professor is the author of this article. If the article "Nombre del artículo / name of the article/nome do artigo>" is approved for publication:

A) As author(s) and owner(s) of the copyright, I authorize the Universidad de Chile to include this text in the Revista Chilena de Enfermería for an unlimited period, so that it can reproduce, edit, distribute, exhibit and communicate it.

B) I/we recognize the requirements of the journal and specify in the document "Front page" that these data are essential for the publication of my(our) manuscript.

C) I/we commit with this submission to follow the editorial process within the established deadlines based on the journal's editorial policies. Likewise, I/we recognize that this is an initial draft and that any of its parts can and will be modified to comply with editorial and academic standards during the editorial process.

D) Declared that the following article for its construction/research process:

- Did not receive funding.                       Did receive funding from: _____

For the record of the above, this declaration is signed on the ___ day of the month of _____ of the year ____, in the city of _____.

Author 1

Name: (Full name and surname as it will appear in the article and its ORCID)

Abbreviated name of how each author cites them in citations.

Email: (This should be the institutional email of each author, preferably)

ORCID: (Full link to each author's ORCID)

Authorship: (Contribution of each author according to CRediT, 14 authorship roles).

Signature: _____

Author 2

Name: (Full name and surname as it will appear in the article and its ORCID)

Abbreviated name of how each author cites them in citations.

Email: (This should be the institutional email of each author, preferably)

ORCID: (Full link to each author's ORCID)

Authorship: (Contribution of each author according to CRediT, 14 authorship roles).

Signature: _____

(Repeat as many times as necessary, with the number of authors that the article has)