

Colorado Bronies Denver Zoo Meet Up

October 8th, 2011

On Saturday, October 8th, 2011, the Colorado Bronies group hosted a meet up at the Denver Zoo in Denver, Colorado. Despite the uncooperative Colorado weather – meaning temperatures in the 40's (perhaps even lower at times) and constant rain and even snow in parts of Denver and Colorado Springs – we had a total turnout of 26 dedicated ponies, both normal attendees and new faces. If it had been warm and sunny, who knows what the turnout would have been – at least 30 for sure!

The weather could do nothing to stop us from have an awesome time! In fact because of it, we had pretty much the entire zoo to ourselves! We spent most of the time hanging out, watching the animals (mostly those in the nice warm buildings), and we even had lunch together. The restaurant was the only place we really ever saw any major group of people outside our own group.

Many of the ponies who had brought their pony figures took pictures of them with the animals (especially those with Fluttershys). We had a lot of other photos too. Have some pictures of our bronies checking out the zoo after the page break!
