An eight-year-old tortoise and a three-year-old dog have become online sensations after a video of them playing chase went viral. In the video, the African Spurred Tortoise, called Sheldon, is seen chasing his friend Dolly, an American pit bull terrier, around its owner's garden in North Texas. It was filmed back in August 2014 by veterinarian Dr. Cynthia Jones, who adopted the two animals. She said Sheldon only plays chase with Dolly and not her other pet, which is a Labrador retriever. Yeah, it must be love!
