

Athletics Awards

Chiang Mai International School

| AwardCriteria                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Programs | Level                | Selection Process        |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------|----------------------|--------------------------|
| Scholar-Athlete of the Year AwardPresented to the Junior or Senior student-athlete who has participated in one or more Varsity programs during the year, and, in addition to overall leadership, commitment, excellence, and communication in athletics, has consistently maintained an outstanding academic record based on academic rigor and GPA. | Any      | Varsity              | Determined by Committee  |
| Athlete of the Year AwardPresented to the two female and male student-athletes who, through participation in two or more Varsity programs during the year, make the greatest contribution to CMIS Athletics, with an emphasis on overall leadership, commitment, excellence, and communication.                                                      | Any      | Varsity              | Determined by Committee  |
| Most Valuable Player AwardPresented to the student-athlete making the greatest contribution to his or her team in terms of overall excellence in performance and leadership.                                                                                                                                                                         | All      | VarsityJVu14 | Determined by Team Coach |
| Most Improved Player AwardPresented to the student-athlete making the greatest degree of skill improvement and character development on his or her team during the season.                                                                                                                                                                           | All      | VarsityJVu14 | Determined by Team Coach |