

Chris Jackson - Ultimate Ejaculation Mastery

The Ultimate Ecstatic Solution To Premature Ejaculation The Tantric Approach to Making Love For As Long As Your Partner Wants, While You Experience More Ecstasy Than You Ever Imagined Possible.

I want to tell you a true story about a typical sexual encounter between me and the sexiest, most passionate woman I've ever met. Of course, passion is only one of the reasons I married Jeffre. I hope reading it turns you on as much as writing it turned me on. If you play with yourself while visualizing this story, I would be honored. We're here to enjoy sex, right? I just want you to remember that, no matter how insecure you are about your ability to master ejaculation, this story is about someone who was one of the world's champions at cuming fast, namely me. I never entered Olympic fast cuming trials (do they still have that event?), but I bet I could have placed high without even trying. No, I could have won a gold medal while trying my damndest not to cum. That's how I used to be. I'm different now as the following story illustrates. And it's not just with this one wonderful woman.

About Author:

Chris Jackson was a typical emasculated adult male – a product of being raised in a society where men are no longer taught how to be men, a society where in fact men are programmed to act in ways that are anything but masculine. Three very painful events, starting in adolescence and culminating in the loss of his wife-to-be, provided him with the motivation to learn how to attract and keep high-value women. Chris resolved that he would do whatever it took to accomplish this goal, and have his personal story of the ups and downs he experienced as he persisted in his efforts.... which are chronicled in not months but years. This is one of the most strongest pickup artists what I know.
