

Act 1

Scene	1	Scene 2-Part 1	Scene 2-Part II	Scene-3
		Ends with Cassius' line" I am glad that my weak words have struck..." Page 888	Starts on page 895 of blue textbook with the stage direction "Enter Caesar and his Train" Brutus: "The games are done" Page 895	Page 899
Brief summary of scene and important events from prior scenes		Caesar enters the scene with all of his peeps on his way to a festival. Someone warns him of danger. Brutus and Cassius stay behind (do not go to the festival) and start discussing what to do with Caesar.	Brutus and Cassius are in a deep conversation about whether Caesar is gaining too much power and they start wondering what to do about it. Caesar is accepting the crown from the people while they are talking. Caesar starts to worry that people are against him. Cassius starts rounding people up.	Some of the conspirators get together and decide they need to do something about Caesar...but they decide they need Brutus to make their cause legitimate.
of Students		4 character parts	4	4 character parts
Characters		Speaking Characters Caesar Antony & Soothsayer(very small-combine with Soothsayer & Casca) Brutus Cassius Background characters (no lines) Calphurnia (1 line-played volunteer student from another group) Marullus Flavius Portia Decius Cicero Casca	Brutus Cassius Casca (Antony & Caesar combine into one or delete one somehow. The person who plays this character should be the director)	Casca Cicero Cassius Cinna (small but important)

Act 2

Scene 1 End on line 228 “And so good morrow to you every one!” Page 911	Scene 1-Part II Starts on line 229 in blue textbook “Boy! Lucius!” Page 918	Scene 2 Page 924	Scene 3	Scene 4
	Skip this year.			Skip this year.
(6-8 characters)-stud ents will need to combine small parts	No more than 3 students	(5 characters)-stud ents will need to combine small parts	1	3 characters
Brutus Cassius Metellus (small) Trebonius (small) Cinna (small) Decius Casca Lucius	Brutus Portia LUcius Ligarius	Caesar Calphurnia Decius Servant (small part) Antony (small) Brutus (small) Trebonius (small)	Artemidorus	Portia Lucius Soothsayer
				Skip for this year.

Act 3

Scene 1 (First half) End at “Ay, every man away. Brutus should lead...” (page 940)	Scene 1 (2nd half) Start at [Enter a servant} and Brutus: “Soft, who comes here...”	Scene 2	Scene 3
---	---	----------------	----------------

	Antony Brutus Cassius Conspirators (1 person)
Caesar Artemidorus Decius Cassius Brutus Popilius/Soothsayer Cinna Metellus Casca (Combine and cut parts!)		Brutus Plebian Plebian Antony Servant (4 students)	Cinna Plebian Plebian
6 students
			SKip