

the 20th,
which by adding a lead sequence to your Download, gives you a faster access to your subscribers purchasin and making them gain more interest from you which gives you new subscribers now.

What can be additionally added is a We appreciate your support! Sequence that comes after they finish signing up to your daily email, that then takes them to the bootcamp quicker, so if any new viewers see your download and decide to sign up before looking inside of StockTrading.com,

It leads them to the boot camp.

What this does for you specifically, is by you having a invitation in certain areas, it doesn't just take them to the bootcamp, but what it does it also speeds up the information of what your subscribers like, and don't like inside of your website, instead of you searching for their preferences in the comments of your channel.

If you have availability I'd like to hop on a call tomorrow, around 2:00 and discuss more about the enter sequence to your upcoming event.
