

Want to get a hair transplant in Turkey? Here are 3 types of clinics you can get your hair transplant with.

Number one, the thrifty clinics.

They cost between 1500-1800 dollars and are usually operating illegally.

If you want your transplant surgery to fail and waste your money, consider them as an Option.

Number two, Specialized Hair Transplant Clinics.

You can get your transplant done with experts in hair restoration, great equipment, top-notch hospitality, and guaranteed results.

Usually these clinics accept 1-2 patients a day for maximum output and care to patients.

If getting the best result and a natural looking hair is what you want, this is the Go-to for you.

Number Three, High End Hospital Groups and that have Hair transplant as a branch of their services

Choose the one that best suits your specific needs and can provide the best Hair Transformation Results for YOU.
