

This one guy hogged ALL 3 of my #AskDaniel Q&As today

G'day and welcome to today's issue of #AskDaniel copywriting Q&As!

Now I NORMALLY feature three different questions for this regular email.

But today, as you will see...

All my three questions come from the SAME guy.

Why?

Well, you'll find out in a second.

Let's have a look at what he wants to know, with his first question:

Dear daniel,

Can You PLEASE make a email on "how to get clients through Instagram" and pls don't say:

"UpWork" - says danial throssell in a high pitched voice that hurts everyones ears making them bleed to death 🙄

Because im only a 15 year old copywriter, and need to be 18+ to be on upwork.

Somthin along those lines.

P.S.

I'm sorry if i disrespected you in any way because of your voice. 🙏

Dont sue me. 😂

Ok ill shut up now.

I did not answer this question straight away, because

- a) it was a stupid question from an annoying kid, and
- b) I never answer questions straight away anyway.

So a couple days later...

The kid followed up:

LOL 😂,

Lucky me i never went in TRW, just learnt copywriting my self as a 15 year old.

Way easier...

Just had to review, read, write 1000 emails and split test.

But now im pretty good.

Oh yea btw,

Did you get my previous email?

If thats a yes, wth did you ignore me?

And if its a “no”, then allow me to tell you what it was about:

I wanted you to make a short email telling how to get clients through instagram.

And dont say - “upwork towerrrr”

Thats all

P.S. pls dont judge this email like the one above, 🤖.

Cause im writing this email in a rush.

(Nearly in 5 minutes)

And if there are any grammer errors, im soory,

But theres no way in the WORLD im going to review this email when im not getting paid.

Wow.

I didn't think it was possible for the kid to get more annoying ... but I was wrong.

And I got even MORE wrong...

Because when I (naturally) ignored him yet again...

He sent a THIRD email:

You now im also a kid?

And im 15 😊.

But i gotta say, love your email.

Like, damn

How tf do you convert general topics into cta, like how?

Like i could never turn a SL: "bulling"

Into a email 😊.

Like NEVER.

Alr i can,

But not as good as you. 🙌

Before we continue...

Heres my purpose of sending you this email...

Create a email explaining how to outreach on instagram.

And pls dong try to sell the upwork tower. 😭

Like i can already imagine you doing so.

Thats all

Peace

- random kid on the internet

P.S. This is Day 3 of asking you this btw.

Gee kid, you don't say...

Well, at least the attitude improved.

(Though he didn't get any less annoying.)

Yet I at least have to give him marks for persistence.

So here is my reluctant answer to both this kid, and all the people who constantly ask me similar questions:

STOP TRYING TO ASK ME HOW TO DO OUTREACH ON INSTAGRAM.

Anyone who teaches you to do outreach on Instagram is probably a get-rich-quick biz-opp hack who only makes money teaching copywriting to hopeless newbies.

NOBODY is looking for copywriters on Instagram.

If you are trying to find clients on Instagram, you are literally one of hundreds of annoying pests in the inboxes of good clients, and you are what is wrong with copywriting.

So I have absolutely NOTHING to say on getting clients on Instagram ... because it is a stupid idea.

There.

That's my answer.

And now that I've answered him...

I'm banning him!

For trying to tell me what I can and can't say in my answers...

For being totally HOPELESS at writing, let alone copywriting...

And finally...

FOR BEING SO ANNOYING!!!

I don't want annoying, illiterate people on my list who are asking me how to spam cold pitches to people on Instagram.

If you do that sort of thing, I don't want anything to do with you.

And anyway...

It's a terrible way to get clients.

And while this kid thought he could tell me not to sell my Upwork in One Hour course as an answer to him...

The truth is, I do it because I know it's FAR more effective to actually try bidding on jobs real clients are actually posting, rather than annoying people on Instagram with cold pitches saying "hey do u need a copywriter?"

Of course, if you suck (like this kid), you're not going to win clients on Upwork OR Instagram.

But in that case, you shouldn't be reading my stuff anyway.

Otherwise?

You can read more about Upwork in One Hour here:

And if you have a question to #AskDaniel ... you can reply to this (or any) email and ask. But ... just ask your question ONCE. Because if you get too annoying, well...
