

How Animals Stay Safe

Name _____

How Animals Stay Safe

Name _____

All animals have ways to stay safe.

All animals have ways to stay safe.

Turtles have hard shells that keep them safe.

Turtles have hard shells that keep them safe.

Many turtles can pull their bodies inside their shells. That makes it harder for animals to hurt them.

Many turtles can pull their bodies inside their shells. That makes it harder for animals to hurt them.

Walking sticks are insects. They look like sticks.

Walking sticks are insects. They look like sticks.

That makes it hard to see. A predator may never notice the insect.

That makes it hard to see. A predator may never notice the insect.

Puffer fish can swallow a lot of water. The extra water makes them look very big.

Puffer fish can swallow a lot of water. The extra water makes them look very big.

Puffer fish also have spines that can hurt predators.

Puffer fish also have spines that can hurt predators.

Animals protect themselves in many ways.
Can you think of others?

Animals protect themselves in many ways.
Can you think of others?