- IP address
- Device Model
- The information you enter to use the features of the application.

The information that we request will be retained by us and used as described in this Privacy Policy.

- Other information that helps us in providing and servicing the App.

If you contact our customer support, then we may also receive information from you as part of that contact. Oftentimes this is your name, email and information about your device.

● Use of Data

We use the collected data for various purposes:

- To provide and maintain our Service
- To notify you about changes to our Service
- To provide customer support
- To gather analysis or valuable information so that we can improve our Service
- To monitor the usage of our Service
- To detect, prevent and address technical issues

● Sharing of Your Information

User data is private and not transferred to third parties.

● How we protect your information

We care about the security of your information and use commercially reasonable physical, administrative, and technological safeguards to preserve the integrity and security of all information we collect and that we share with our service providers. However, no security system is impenetrable and we cannot guarantee the security of our systems 100%. In the event that any information under our control is compromised as a result of a breach of security, we will take reasonable steps to investigate the situation and where appropriate, notify those individuals whose information may have been compromised and take other steps, in accordance with any applicable laws and regulations.

- The amount of data processed

The user has read the functionality of the application and agrees to the processing of data to the extent to which they are used in the application.

- Shelf life

User data processed in the application is stored from the moment of application installation and throughout the period of application use.

- Children's Privacy
